OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, BOSTON, Feb. 1, 1900.

Hon. JAMES J. MYERS, Speaker, House of Representatives.

SIR:—I have the honor to transmit herewith, for the use of the Legislature, the thirteenth annual report of the Controller of County Accounts, for the year 1899 (Public Document, No. 29).

Very respectfully,

WM. M. OLIN,

Secretary.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
COMMONWEALTH BUILDING, No. 65 BOWDOIN STREET,
BOSTON, Jan. 31, 1900.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with law, I have the honor to submit the thirteenth annual report of this office, covering the year ending with the thirty-first day of December, 1899.

The examination of the accounts of the various officials placed under the supervision of this office, made during the past year, has shown, on the whole, a very satisfactory condition of affairs, so far as relates to the proper keeping of records, filing of vouchers, payment of moneys to the parties properly entitled thereto, and prompt rendering of official accounts and settlement of the same where funds are required to be paid over to towns, cities, county or State.

The provisions of law have been found to be sufficiently broad to meet almost all needed requirements in the determination of the duties, so far as the financial affairs are concerned, of the county officials or court officers who receive and disburse public moneys, and over whom the controller has, in that regard, official supervision. Some questions as to the intent or construction of laws have inevitably arisen, but it has been possible in almost every instance to reach a satisfactory conclusion as to proper procedure by study of the statutes; therefore, I have at this time little to suggest as needed in legislation as to methods of accounting.

But, while the requirement of law is simply that the controller shall "in his annual report give such statements, facts and explanations, and make such suggestions and recommendations to the general court as, in his judgment, will tend to a simple, uniform and economical method of accounting for public funds," my judgment has coincided with that of my predecessor in this office; and it has appeared to me to be my duty to the counties and the Commonwealth to go beyond the letter of the law in making statements, suggestions or recommendations, when such, in my judgment, were desirable to be made for the advantage of the counties or for the protection or benefit of such of the general public as may have business in county offices or courts, even if the statement or suggestion thus made should not directly relate to "methods of accounting."

With this explanation as to my conception of my duty or privilege, I submit the statements and suggestions which follow : —

THE LAND REGISTRATION ACT.

In section 11 of chapter 562 of the Acts of 1898, designated as "The land registration act," it is provided that the recorder and all assistant recorders "shall keep accurate accounts of all moneys received as fees or otherwise, which shall be subject to examination by the controller of county accounts, in the same manner as accounts of registers of deeds, and they shall pay over such moneys quarterly to the treasurer of the Commonwealth."

While an examination of the accounts of the court of registration is thus provided for, to be made by the Controller of County Accounts, no provision has been made for a report, or annual return, to this or any other department. During the past year there have been inquiries made of me as to the amount of business done and the financial statistics of the court; and it appears to me to be desirable, not only for the information of such of the general public as may be interested, but also and in a greater degree for the information of the Legislature, that such provisions of law as have heretofore been enacted, calling for annual returns not only from registers of deeds but as well from all other officers whose accounts are subject to examination by this office, should be extended to apply to the recorder of the court of registration.

I therefore recommend the enactment of the same provision of law as now applies to registers of deeds, as follows : —

AN ACT RELATING TO THE ACCOUNTS OF THE RECORDERS OF THE COURT OF REGISTRATION.

The recorder and all assistant recorders of the court of registration shall be subject to all the provisions of chapter four hundred and thirty-eight of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and acts in amendment thereof, so far as the same are applicable.

OFFICIAL HOURS IN REGISTRIES OF DEEDS.

Under this heading, in my report for 1896, I made the following statement and recommendation : —

Owing to the fact that there have been no legally established hours for the opening and closing of the offices of the registers, there has been in some counties opportunity for unfair advantage to be gained by one party over another in placing upon record papers of importance to opposing interests. I have been informed that in some instances papers have been taken to the home of a register in the evening and left with him for record. It can readily be seen that, if such papers should be put upon record as of the day when left in the hands of the register, innocent parties might suffer great injury.

I therefore recommend that the hours in which the offices of the registers of deeds shall be open to the public shall be established by the registers in each county, and proper notice thereof be given ; said hours not to be less than seven each day, excepting Saturday, on which day the hours shall not be less than three, and that no instrument shall be recorded outside of the hours so established.

In my report for 1898 I renewed, in substance, the same recommendation.

A decision which has just been rendered by the supreme court furnishes, to my mind, conclusive evidence of the need of legislation in the line above recommended. The decision referred to was in the case of Rufus H. Orne et al. v. W. N. Barstow, and the facts and decision are (according to the report in a daily paper) as follows : —

The case was a petition to enforce a mechanic's lien, and the certificate of the register of deeds showed that it was filed on a date too late to make the filing effective. Evidence was introduced at the trial, however, to show that the petitioner's counsel went to the office of the register at East Cambridge on the afternoon of Saturday, Feb. 12, 1898, which would have enabled him to file the certificate in time had the office been open for business. The office was, however, closed for the day, it being between 1.30 and 2 P.M. The attorney succeeded in getting into the office, but the register refused to accept the certificate. The attorney was, however, given an envelope by the register, put the certificate in it, and, going out of the building, shoved the envelope under the outside door.

"He was watched," says the court, "by the register's clerk, and the fair inference is that the clerk took the envelope, which was on the register's desk on Monday morning. . . . We are of opinion that on the facts proved the statement was filed on Saturday afternoon.

"We shall go no further in our decision than this case requires. We shall not undertake to decide whether the register had a right, under Public Statutes, to close his office as early as he did, so far as to exonerate himself from liability had some one come to the office and found it empty. But he was there. With his knowledge and assent the instrument was left within the inclosure of the office or its approach, for the purpose of being recorded. It was taken into custody by his servants or agents. He undertook to refuse legal effect to the deposit, it is true, but in our opinion that was beyond his power. It was the petitioners' right, if they found the register in his office on a week day and during daylight, to insist on their statement being filed forthwith, and it is no answer to say that the register might have been absent without liability under the law. As the petitioners did all they could do or were bound to do, the register's conduct did not affect their rights."

While this decision was given upon a matter where perhaps no large sum or great interest was involved, it evidences the possibility under the law, as thus defined, that serious injustice may be done innocent parties, where large amounts and important interests may be at stake. For illustration, application is made to an individual or corporation for a loan on a mortgage. The usual examination is made by a competent lawyer or examiner of titles; he finds at 5 o'clock P.M. (the customary hour of closing the registry) that the title is vested in the applicant, and there is no encumbrance on the property, and he so reports to his principal. The papers have all been drawn, and, the signatures being affixed, the money is at once paid over, and the mortgage is mailed, or presented for record the following morning, with full confidence and apparently absolute knowledge that the title is perfect and that there is no encumbrance entitled to priority.

But it happened that on the previous day the register either remained for some purpose, or was induced to return to his office, after the usual closing hour, and an attachment, mortgage or deed to another party of the same property was received by him or his clerk, which, under the law as now defined, obtained priority of record, and as a consequence impaired or perhaps rendered absolutely valueless the security which had been given for the payment of the loan.

Many other instances might be given in which equal injustice could occur, but they will readily present themselves to any legal mind, and I will let one illustration suffice.

It surely is not a desirable or reasonable condition of affairs, where such important interests may be at stake, that there shall be no limit excepting daylight as to the time when a paper can go on record if the register can be found or induced to be in his office, with the enforced sequence that the examiner of a title can never be sure as to what the records of a day may show, unless he watches the registry until the last vestige of daylight disappears.

It would further follow that, in order to be sure that his paper is to have the necessary priority in recording, he must be at the registry at sunrise the next morning; for, as daylight only is the legal limit, the custom which has heretofore been followed by the registers of placing papers received before the customary hour of opening the office on record as of that hour (thus giving every man an equal standing, whether he comes in person or his papers are received by mail before that hour), no longer can be relied upon. Vigilance, early and late, must take the place of calm confidence of security sanctioned by law or custom.

I believe the registers to be, without exception, careful, conscientious men, striving to serve the public without fear or favor. It is an injustice to them that there should be opportunity for question as to their reasons or motives in the conduct of their offices; and such opportunity certainly exists when it is possible for a friend of the register, or a man with money to spare, to have the privilege of placing an attachment, lien or other paper on record before or after the usual hours, if he can only persuade the register to be in the office at such a time as best suits the purpose of the intending depositor.

It seems to me that there is urgent need of legislation in the line proposed, both for the protection of the public and the registers. While it may not be wise to establish absolutely uniform hours in all the counties,—because the convenience of the public should be consulted, and the hours which may be suitable for Middlesex or Suffolk might be very inconvenient in Barnstable or Dukes County, on account of the running of trains or other means of conveyance, — the fixing of the proper hours is only a matter of detail, which can be easily arranged by consultation with the various registers. Having in mind the necessary discrimination as to districts, I recommend that fixed hours be established in the offices of the registers of deeds in all the counties, and that no paper shall go on record outside the hours thus established; or perhaps a simple and equally efficacious provision, that any paper received for record in a registry of deeds after the established or customary hour of closing such registry shall go on record as of the established hour upon which the registry is next opened to the public.

SIMPLIFYING THE TRANSFER OF TITLE TO PROPERTY.

In my last report I recommended the passage of an act designed to simplify the transfer of title to property. The act proposed not only was approved by the registers of deeds and many leading lawyers throughout the State, but also after being considered section by section by the Abstract Club of Boston (an organization composed of lawyers, many of them authorities in their profession in all matters relating to conveyances of property), was formally approved by vote of the members.

The proposed act was favorably reported upon by the committee to which it was referred, and, as Senate No. 265, was passed in the Senate, but failed to be enacted in the House.

I have been so urgently requested to again bring the subject to the attention of the General Court, both by registers of deeds and by conveyancers whose experience and knowledge is most extensive in this line of legal work, and I am so fully convinced that the proposed legislation would result in an almost incalculable saving of expense to the counties and the State, with absolutely no disadvantage to any person or interest, that I feel it my duty to once more recommend the passage of the act, as follows: —

AN ACT TO SIMPLIFY THE TRANSFER OF TITLE TO PROPERTY.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows :

SECTION 1. In a conveyance of property the word "grant" shall have the full force, meaning and effect of the words "give, grant, bargain, sell and convey," and shall be applied and construed accordingly, but no one of said words shall import any covenant or warranty whatsoever.

SECTION 2. In a conveyance of property the word "release" or the word "quitclaim" shall have the full force, meaning and effect of the words "convey, remise, release and forever quitclaim," and shall be applied and construed accordingly.

SECTION 3. In an assignment of mortgage of real or personal estate the word "assign" shall have the full force, meaning and effect of the words "assign, transfer and set over," or any of them, and shall be applied and construed accordingly. The word "assign" so used shall of itself operate to vest in the assignee all and every interest of the assignor under the mortgage so assigned, in the mortgaged estate, and in or to the note, debt, or claim thereby secured, and any and all insurance policies held therewith.

SECTION 4. The word "mortgage" used in the granting clause of a conveyance of property shall be deemed equivalent to the word "grant," as defined in section one of this act.

SECTION 5. It shall not be necessary, in any instrument affecting the title of real estate, to express either the payment or the receipt of consideration. The execution and delivery of the instrument shall imply valid consideration to the same extent to which a recital of consideration would imply it.

SECTION 6. It shall not be necessary, in any conveyance of property, to employ the clause known as the habendum, or any other clause similar or equivalent thereto, or to express any use. It shall not be necessary to use the word "heirs" to convey an estate in fee simple, but every conveyance shall have the same effect as if the grant had been to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, unless otherwise expressly stated.

SECTION 7. In every conveyance of property all rights, easements, privileges and appurtenances belonging to the granted estate or used therewith shall be included in the conveyance and passed thereby, unless the contrary shall clearly be made to appear in the deed, and it shall never be necessary to enumerate or mention them.

SECTION 8. In a discharge or release of mortgage of real or personal estate it shall not be necessary to use any word of grant by the holder of the mortgage to the release, or to use the word "heirs," but any words fairly importing that the debt or condition of the mortgage has been paid, satisfied or performed, shall be sufficient.

SECTION 9. In a conveyance of property it shall not be necessary to insert any words of covenant in the form heretofore employed; but the words "full covenants" or "warranty covenants" shall have the full force, meaning and effect of the words: "And the grantor for himself and his heirs, executors and administrators, covenants with the grantee, his heirs and assigns, that he is lawfully seized in fee simple of the granted premises; that they are free from all encumbrances; that he has good right to sell and convey the same to the grantee, his heirs and assigns forever, as aforesaid; and that he will, and his heirs, executors and administrators shall, warrant and defend the same to the grantee and his heirs and assigns forever, against the lawful claims and demands of all persons," and shall be construed and applied accordingly. Exceptions from such covenant may be made by any apt words.

SECTION 10. In such a conveyance the words "special covenants," or "limited covenants," or "quitclaim covenants," or "qualified covenants," shall have the full force, meaning and effect of the words, "and the said grantor for himself and his heirs, executors and administrators, covenants with said grantee and his heirs and assigns that the premises are free from all encumbrances made by him; and that he will, and his heirs, executors and administrators shall, warrant and defend the same to the said grantee and his heirs and assigns forever, against the lawful claims and demands of all persons claiming by, through or under him, but against none other," and shall be construed and applied accordingly. Exceptions from such covenant may be made by any apt words.

SECTION 11. In a mortgage of property the use of the words "statutory power of sale" shall be sufficient, without more, to create a power of sale in the holder of the mortgage; and said words "statutory power of sale" shall have the full force, meaning and effect of the words: "But if default shall be made in the performance or observance of the foregoing condition or any part thereof, then the grantee, his executors, administrators or assigns, may sell the granted premises, or such portion as may remain subject to this mortgage, in case of any partial release thereof, with all the improvements that may be thereon, at public auction, either as a whole or by parcels; and in case of a sale by parcels, the purchaser of any parcel shall take good title, even though sufficient sums may have been already realized from sale of the other parcel or parcels to satisfy all lawful claims hereunder; such sale to be on or near the granted premises or at the place designated in the mortgage, without notice or demand, except giving notice of the time and place of sale as herein provided; and in their own name or names, or as attorney of the grantor for that purpose hereby duly authorized, convey the same absolutely and in fee simple to the purchaser accordingly; and out of the proceeds of such sale retain all sums then secured by this deed (whether then or thereafter payable), with interest and all costs and expenses, and one per centum of the purchase money for the services of the grantee in making said sale; paying the surplus, if any, to the grantor, his heirs or assigns on demand; and such sale shall forever bar the grantor, and all persons claiming under the grantor, from all right and interest in the premises at law and in equity. And it is mutually agreed that the benefit of any entry shall enure to any purchaser at said sale who shall be held to claim thereunder in case of any defect in the sale; that the grantee or his assigns may purchase at said sale, and that no other purchaser shall be answerable for the application of the purchase money. And the grantor doth further covenant with the grantee and his executors, administrators and assigns, that on such sale he or they will, upon request, execute and deliver such a release as shall confirm said sale, and vest the title to the premises sold in the purchaser thereof;" and shall be applied and construed accordingly. Modification of this power of sale may be made by any apt words. But, before selling, the holder of the mortgage shall publish notice of the time and place of sale once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper published in the city or town, or, if there be no such newspaper, then in some newspaper published in the county where the mortgaged premises are; and the first of such publications shall not be less than twenty-one days before the day of sale.

SECTION 12. In a mortgage of property the words "to secure payment of," or any apt words signifying the existence of a debt, obligation or undertaking on the part of the mortgagor, shall be sufficient to create a condition, without the use of any technical expression heretofore employed.

SECTION 13. In a mortgage of land the following words shall be imported as matter of law, whether therein expressed or not, unless a contrary intent is made clearly to appear in the mortgage: "and provided, also, that, until some breach of any of the conditions of this deed, the grantee shall have no right to sell or to enter and take possession of the premises or take the rents and profits thereof."

SECTION 14. In this act the word "property" shall mean and include all property, real, personal and mixed; the word "grantor" shall mean and include the grantor or grantors, and his, her, its or their executors, administrators and assigns; and the word "grantee" shall mean and include the grantee or grantees, and his, her, its or their heirs, successors and assigns.

SECTION 15. In this act the word "land" shall include lands, tenements, hereditaments and all rights and interests in and to the same.

SECTION 16. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to invalidate the legal effect of other forms of conveyance.

SECTION 17. Forms similar to those in the following schedule may be used in cases where they are applicable, and they may be adapted to other cases by such variations as circumstances may require, to wit: —

SCHEDULE OF FORMS.

1. [Warranty Deed.]

Be it known that I, A. B. of grant unto C. D. of with warranty covenants [the quitclaim deed should be similar in form, but should contain, in place of the words "warranty covenants," the words of section ten] all that parcel of land situate, etc. And I, E. B., wife of the said A. B., release to the grantee all my rights of dower and homestead in the said premises, or [I have no wife].

Witness hand and seal the day of , in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-nine.

Acknowledged by said A. B. at Boston, the third day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine.

Before me, G. H.

Justice of the Peace.

2. [Deed of Mortgage.]

Be it known that I, A. B., of for dollars to me paid, mortgage unto C. D. of with warranty covenants all that parcel of land situate, etc.

Provided, that if I shall pay to the grantee the sum of dollars in year from the date hereof, with interest at the rate of per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, and until payment of the said sum and interest shall pay all taxes, charges and assessments laid upon the said premises, and upon the note and debt hereby secured, and insure and keep insured against fire the buildings thereon for not less than dollars, in such insurance office or offices and upon such terms as the holder of this mortgage shall approve, payable to him in case of loss, then this deed and a promissory note for the said sum and interest, bearing the same date herewith, made by me and payable to the grantee or order at the times aforesaid, shall be void.

The grantee shall have the statutory power of sale.

And I, E. B., wife of the said A. B., release to the grantee all my rights of dower and homestead in the said premises, or [I have no wife].

Witness hand and seal the day of , in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-nine.

[Acknowledgment.]

3. [Transfer of a Mortgage.]

Be it known that I, C. D., the present holder of a mortgage given by A. B., to dated the third of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, and recorded with the Suffolk deeds, libro folio , assign the said mortgage unto E. F.

Witness my hand and seal the eleventh day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-nine.

[Acknowledgment.]

4. [Discharge of a Mortgage.]

Be it known that I, C. D., the present holder of a mortgage given by A. B., to dated the third of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, and recorded with Suffolk deeds, libro folio , do acknowledge the satisfaction of the said mortgage.

Witness my hand and seal the sixth day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-nine.

[Acknowledgment.]

SECTION 18. The fees for recording instruments drawn in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be the same as now required by law; but in no case shall the charge for recording a deed be less than fifty cents, and for recording a mortgage less than one dollar.

BONDS OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS.

The Statutes of 1893, chapter 257, provide that "All bonds of public officers, required by law to be deposited with county treasurers, shall at least once a year be examined as to their sufficiency by the controller of county accounts or by one of his deputies. If it appears that any such bond is insufficient, said controller shall report the fact to the superior court or to some justice thereof, and said court shall cause a record of that fact to be made by its clerk; and said court or any justice thereof, in term time or vacation, shall require the party or person who gave such bond to give a new one, satisfactory to the court, within such time as it shall order."

Bonds of medical examiners are among those required by law to be deposited with county treasurers. These bonds are required to be for the sum of five thousand dollars, which is a larger amount than that required of any other official whose bond is by law deposited with the county treasurers.

The provision of the statute above quoted, viz., that, if the controller finds a bond of a medical examiner to be insufficient, he shall report the facts to the superior court and a new bond shall be supplied satisfactory to the said court, would naturally lead to the supposition that the original bond was subject to the same examination and had met the same approval as is required for the new one. This would still further be reasonably expected, in view of the fact that the bonds of many other officers deposited with county treasurers are by law required first to have been approved by the said court.

But there is in reality no provision of law requiring pre-examination and approval of original bonds of medical examiners, before deposit with the county treasurers, by the superior court, or, in fact, by any other legalized authority.

In section 5 of chapter 26 of the Public Statutes it is provided only that "Each medical examiner and the associate medical examiner for Suffolk county shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, be sworn and give bond with sureties to the treasurer of the county, in the sum of five thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of his duties."

In section 6 of the same there is a provision (now repealed by the act directing the controller to make an annual examination of bonds) "that the superior court shall each year examine into the sufficiency of all bonds given under the preceding section," which again by inference would imply that the original bond was examined by the court.

It seems to me to be plain that the lack of provision for original examination was an unintentional omission, and that correction thereof should be made, so that the bonds may more surely be "sufficient" when deposited with the treasurers, thus avoiding a possible insufficiency during the weeks or months before they may come under the scrutiny of the controller in his annual examinations. There are now associate medical examiners in many counties beside Suffolk.

I recommend the passage of the following act : —

AN ACT RELATING TO BONDS OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS.

SECTION 1. Each medical examiner and each associate medical examiner shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, be sworn and give bond to the treasurer of the county, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the superior court, or some justice thereof, in the sum of five thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of such duties. If he fails to give such bond for thirty days after his appointment, such appointment shall be void.

SECTION 2. Section five of chapter twenty-six of the Public Statutes is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

REPAIRS OF COUNTY BUILDINGS BY DAY WORK.

The closing paragraph of chapter 137 of the Acts of 1897 reads as follows : —

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prevent county commissioners from causing county buildings to be repaired by day work, whenever, in the unanimous judgment of the board, to be expressed in a vote, the best interests of the county require such a course ; but no bill in excess of eight hundred dollars for repairs done by day work shall be paid by the county treasurer, unless such a vote appears upon the records of the county commissioners.

It seems to me to be an unnecessary and unwise restriction that repairs by day work, which are generally small in extent and limited in cost, shall only be legally made by the unanimous judgment of the board of county commissioners. I see no reason why this expenditure should be an exception to the otherwise invariable rule that a "majority" shall decide.

It also appears to me that the further provision in the paragraph above quoted, viz., "but no bill in excess of eight hundred dollars for repairs done by day work shall be paid by the county treasurer, unless such a vote appears upon the records of the county commissioners," is seriously objectionable, not only in that it necessitates that the treasurer shall leave his office and make an examination of the records of the commissioners before he can pay such a bill, but especially because it fails to provide any voucher for the files of the treasurer that such a vote was passed by the commissioners.

The payment of moneys for other purposes on the order of the commissioners can only be made by the treasurer when the order is signed by a majority of the commissioners and attested by their clerk, thus furnishing a voucher for the treasurer which can be readily inspected by the controller when examination is made of the accounts of the treasurer.

In promotion of uniformity of system, and to provide a proper voucher for the files of the treasurer, I recommend the passage of the following act: —

AN ACT RELATING TO REPAIRS OF COUNTY BUILDINGS BY DAY WORK.

SECTION 1. The last paragraph of chapter one hundred and thirty-seven of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-seven is hereby amended by the erasure of the word "unanimous," between the words "the" and "judgment," and by the insertion between the words "unless" and "such," in the last line, of the words "upon or with the bill the clerk of the county commissioners has duly certified that," so that the paragraph shall read as follows: Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prevent county commissioners from causing county buildings to be repaired by day work, whenever, in the judgment of the board, to be expressed in a vote, the best interests of the county require such a course; but no bill in excess of eight hundred dollars for repairs done by day work shall be paid by the county treasurer, unless upon or with the bill the clerk of the county commissioners has duly certified that such a vote appears upon the records of the county commissioners.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

EXPERT WITNESSES IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS AND INQUESTS.

Question has arisen during the past year as to the amount to be allowed by trial justices, or in the lower courts, as witness fees to so-called experts, chiefly members of the medical profession. There appears to be no provision of law governing this expense. Bills for such service have been presented ranging from five to fifty dollars for a day's attendance. I find in chapter 379 of the Acts of 1885 a provision in section 2, which, while it does not apply to witnesses before the courts, shows the judgment of the Legislature of that year as to the value to be placed on the time and services of a physician as a witness at an autopsy; and it seems to me it might well be a guide in fixing the compensation to be allowed such a witness in a case before a court.

While, to my mind, it is perhaps reasonable that a man who has spent years of study and practice upon the human body (and thus acquired knowledge which is sometimes of exceptional value in cases before the courts) should receive larger compensation for his time and knowledge than a common witness who can only testify as to certain facts, and whose evidence, therefore, is valuable only to that extent, it nevertheless appears to me that every citizen owes a modicum, at least, of his time, knowledge and services to the Commonwealth, whose laws are his safeguard to the full possession of those inalienable rights of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" which all desire, and that he should willingly make some sacrifice of personal comfort and financial gain for the purpose of the proper enforcement of such laws. That this responsibility and duty has been taken into account in the enactment of laws is evidenced by the fact that the statutes require service from all men, when called for by the Commonwealth, as witnesses or jurors, whether rich or poor, possessed of professional knowledge or lacking all qualifications acquired from books. A merchant, banker, manufacturer or lawyer may have spent as many years and as much study in acquiring knowledge of his business or profession, and his time may be as valuable to him in his business as that of a member of the medical profession is to him, and yet he is required to serve as a witness without compensation beyond that given to all.

It seems to me that it is desirable, if not absolutely necessary, for the assistance of justices of courts in their efforts to keep court expenses within their proper limits, that the Legislature shall fix a maximum amount to be allowed such expert witnesses. I do not, however, submit any bill to that end, because I have reason to believe that one containing such a provision has been written by a judge of one of the courts, and that it will be presented for your consideration.

STENOGRAPHERS IN INQUESTS HELD BY JUSTICES OF THE LOWER COURTS.

In examining the accounts of one of the county treasurers, I found a bill for the services of a stenographer in a post-mortem inquest held by a justice of a district court. As I was unaware of any law providing for the employment of a stenographer in an inquest held by such a justice, excepting in "railway cases," in which the expense is not a county charge (Statutes of 1896, chapter 302), or in "election cases" (Statutes of 1895, chapter 355), I asked the opinion of the Attorney-General as to the legality of such employment. For the information of the Legislature and the judges of the courts concerned I present the opinion received, so that knowledge may be had of the privilege of justices in such cases under the law as thus interpreted; and thus, if it appears necessary, opportunity may be taken for amendment.

The question upon which I asked the opinion of the Attorney-General was divided into two parts:—

1. Is the justice of a district court holding an inquest authorized to employ the services of a stenographer at the expense of the county?

2. If the justice is not so authorized, has the district attorney the right to direct that the evidence in such cases shall be stenographically reported?

In reply, the Attorney-General, after quoting the provisions of Statutes of 1896, chapter 302 (which relate solely to railway cases), says as follows:—

It is clear that as to such inquests a bill for the stenographic report of inquests is payable by the State Treasurer, when duly approved by the justice, and afterwards by the Board of Railroad Commissioners.

Statutes of 1898, chapter 548, section 304, provides for inquests into the conduct of elections in certain cases. In such cases section 307 of the same chapter authorizes the justice to employ a stenographer, whenever he deems it necessary. Presumably the stenographer's bill in such cases is payable from the county treasury.

There is no other statute authorizing the employment of a stenographer by a justice holding an inquest; and the inference is very strong that where the statute does not specially authorize such employment the justice has no right to have the testimony taken at the expense of the county. If the general authority confided to him to conduct inquests included the power of employing a stenographer, there would be no occasion for the statutes above referred to. Moreover, excepting as required by the district attorney for his use in conducting criminal prosecutions, there is no more occasion for the employment of a stenographer in an inquest than in any other trial before the justice.

I am of opinion, therefore, that a justice holding an inquest, excepting in cases where it is expressly authorized by statute, has no power to authorize the employment of a stenographer at the expense of the county.

It is otherwise with district attorneys. The duties of those officers are general in their nature, and may be said to comprise whatever in their discretion they may deem necessary for the prosecution of crime and the conviction of the criminal. It is often of the utmost importance, in cases of homicide, that the testimony before the justice at the inquest be accurately reported and preserved for future use. One of the principal purposes, indeed, of such inquests is to obtain evidence bearing upon the question of the homicide, and to secure and preserve the statements of persons who may be familiar with the circumstances, particularly of those who, by reason of their interest in the defendant, may later be unwilling to furnish evidence against him.

No statute expressly authorizes the incurring of such expenses; but it would be, in my judgment, a serious impairment of the usefulness of a district attorney to require him to find a definite statutory authority for every expense necessarily incurred by him in prosecuting criminals and punishing crime. He is the direct representative of the people, and is responsible to them for the efficient performance of his duty to prosecute and convict persons guilty of offences against the law. It has certainly been the constant practice of district attorneys to employ stenographers to take testimony at inquests, and have the same written out for their use; and the assistance afforded by the testimony produced at the inquest has in many cases been of great value to the prosecution.

I am of opinion, therefore, that in his discretion the district attorney may direct that the testimony taken at an inquest where crime is suspected be taken stenographically, and written out for his use in the subsequent conduct of the case.

I do not deem it necessary to rely for this authority upon the provisions of Public Statutes, chapter 217, section 4, the language of which is: "All legal costs and expenses arising in criminal prosecutions, including the fees of grand and traverse jurors for travel and attendance therein, unless paid by the party prosecuted, shall be paid by the respective counties in which they occur." I am not at all sure that the fair construction of this language would include the expense in question. I prefer to rest my conclusions upon the general powers of district attorneys, as above stated.

HOSEA M. KNOWLTON,
Attorney-General.

THIRD DEPUTY CONTROLLER.

By chapter 477 of the Acts of 1898 the controller was authorized to appoint a third deputy to assist him in the discharge of the duties of his office. This was in response to my repeated requests for additional assistance, on account of the increased work given me by the legislation of recent years.

I asked the Legislature to provide the same salary for this deputy as had been allowed the other deputies upon the establishment of the office, viz., fifteen hundred dollars per annum. This was not accorded, but the amount of one thousand dollars was allowed.

I have good reasons for believing that the smaller amount was recommended by the committee through the erroneous impression that the services to be rendered would be chiefly in the line of a typewriter's work. This was not the fact. The enlarged duties of the office demanded the services of another deputy to properly perform the important work of examination of official accounts, and the greatly increased correspondence required the assistance of a stenographer and typewriter.

Instead of asking for authority to appoint two persons to separately perform these duties, I proposed, as a measure of economy, that another deputy should be given me, my intention being to thus obtain in the person of one man and for one salary the assistance needed, both in the inspection of accounts and in the clerical work of the office. The third deputy was by the act as passed to "have the same powers as the other deputies of the controller." It was necessary that he should perform the same duties and take the same responsibilities.

It proved to be next to impossible to find a man qualified both as an accountant and as a typewriter who desired to take the position at the salary fixed. Finally, when I had almost given up hope of finding any one qualified for the position who was willing to take it under the conditions, my present third deputy, experienced as an accountant and capacitated as a typewriter, accepted the appointment with the understanding that I would at the first opportunity recommend that the salary of the position be made to correspond with the work to be done and the responsibility to be taken. He has proven himself to be thoroughly competent and well equipped for the dual duties required of him.

In my judgment, the salary fixed is inadequate to the position and insufficient to secure and retain the services of such a man as the best interests of the Commonwealth require. I therefore recommend and urge the passage of the following :—

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH THE SALARY OF THE THIRD DEPUTY IN THE OFFICE OF THE CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

The salary of the third deputy in the office of the controller of county accounts shall be fifteen hundred dollars per annum from and after the first day of January, nineteen hundred.

THE TABULATIONS.

While the tables in the Appendix present the receipts and expenditures in the detail required by law, I collate from them certain aggregate showings which appear to me to be of interest in connection with the consideration of county affairs, as follows (only round numbers are used) :—

Cash received by county treasurers in 1898,	. . .	$4,452,600 00

For law libraries,	28,000 00	24,000 00
For truant schools,	50,000 00	52,000 00

Considering first the figures derived from the annual returns of the county treasurers, and which relate only to the financial status of the counties, I present the following:—

COMPARISON OF COUNTY RECEIPTS FOR 1898 WITH 1899.

It appears that the moneys received by the treasurers from all sources, including taxes and borrowed money,—in other words, all the funds passing through their hands,— were, exclusive of the balances at the end of the year, less in amount than for the previous year by the sum of $516,800.

This decrease, the returns show, was largely in amounts received for taxes, which were $43,000 less, and in the amounts of money borrowed, which show a diminution of $478,000; while in a number of items there was a small increase of receipts, which offsets the reduction in the large items first mentioned, and produces the net result stated.

THE COUNTY DEBTS.

The debts of the counties when added together show an increase in each of the three years for which the figures are given, although the increase for 1899 over 1898 is much less than that of 1898 over 1897; the increase in 1898 being $674,000, while the increase in the past year amounts to but $286,600; but this increase in the aggregate debt of the counties is not to be taken (as would perhaps be inferred if no explanation were made) as indicating that all or even a majority of the counties have increased their liabilities during the past year, for there are, in fact, only four of the counties which show an increase, while all the others show a decrease, of either large or small amount; and the comparatively large increase in one of these four counties, viz., Franklin, is in a great degree apparent rather than real, for the reason that it has arisen from the borrowing of money for the building of the "Northfield bridge," for which the county is called upon to temporarily supply the funds needed in the prosecution of the work; but when the bridge is completed the total cost is to be apportioned, and at least four-fifths of the expense is to be reimbursed the county by the towns directly benefited.

In order that the actual facts may clearly appear, I present below a table showing both the debt of each county, and the increase or decrease of the same, on December 31 of the two years under consideration.

Essex, one of the largest, and Nantucket, one of the smallest, of the counties are omitted from the table, as they have the good fortune and proud distinction of being free from debt. Suffolk also is omitted, because its financial affairs are by law exempted from the scrutiny of this office, and no reliable figures are available.

	$2,863,000 00	$3,149,600 00	$339,500 00	$52,900 00

THE INTEREST ACCOUNT.

The interest account shows an increase in the amount paid out and a decrease in the amount received.

The increased amount of interest paid is an inevitable result of the increase of the county debts, while the decrease in interest received is in part accounted for by the low rates which have prevailed for the use of money, and in part by the fact that the cash balances in the hands of the treasurers have, as a rule, been smaller than for the previous year.

TAXES COLLECTED.

The county taxes collected show a decrease of $43,000 in 1899 from the amount received for the same account in 1898, not a large difference, but still slightly in favor of the tax payers.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES FOR CERTAIN ACCOUNTS.

The items of receipts and expenditures following the heading of "Comparative receipts for certain specified accounts" are derived both from the annual returns of the county treasurers and from the returns of various other officers. They are not intended as a showing of the total receipts and expenditures, excepting for the items specified, which, to my mind, appear to be of special interest.

In the Appendix, which follows, will be found the complete returns of all the offices.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT,

Controller.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, BOSTON, Feb. 1, 1901.

Hon. JAMES J. MYERS, Speaker, House of Representatives.

SIR:—I have the honor to transmit herewith, for the use of the Legislature, the fourteenth annual report of the Controller of County Accounts, for the year 1900 (Public Document, No. 29).

Very respectfully,

WM. M. OLIN,
Secretary.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
No. 8 BEACON STREET, ROOM 72, BOSTON, Jan. 31, 1901.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with law, I have the honor to submit the fourteenth annual report of this office, covering the year ending with the thirty-first day of December, 1900.

The experience of another year has presented to my mind but few demands for improvement in the established methods of accounting for public funds which pass through the hands of the various county officers, and these demands or opportunities for improved methods are in the perfecting of details of the present system rather than in any radical change therein. In this line, I call your attention to —

PAYMENTS TO COUNTY TREASURERS BY CLERKS OR TREASURERS OF CITIES OR TOWNS.

In the examination of the accounts of county treasurers, and also, to a certain extent, the accounts of other county officers, the receipt side of the account is that as to which there must always be more or less uncertainty in the mind of the examiner as to whether everything is duly and properly entered which should rightfully there appear. This uncertainty does not necessarily imply any intentional remissness on the part of the official, but may arise from appreciation of the fallibility of human nature. The man has, I believe, yet to be born who never errs either in omission or commission.

When moneys have been entered as received, and the liability for their care and use thus acknowledged, the absolute knowledge of their location or the use to which they have been devoted is dependent simply on the careful-ness of research and expert knowledge of accounts of the examiner. But to know that every cent which has been received is shown under its proper heading is a different matter entirely. For this knowledge, dependence necessarily must be placed, first, on the honesty and carefulness of the official, and second, and most important, on some system which shall show, outside of the official's statement, what moneys have passed into his hands.

In the examination of the accounts of the county treasurer, the controller has under existing law opportunity for knowledge as to his receipts from almost all other county officials, because the accounts of these other officials are also under his supervision, and he can lawfully require from them such exhibits, vouchers and statements as will demonstrate whether their payments to the treasurer have been properly entered among his receipts. The exception to this rule as to county officials is in the truant schools of the several counties. The controller has no supervision of their financial accounts and no authority to require from them any statement as to moneys paid over to the treasurer. Outside of this one county department there has been established by the controller a reasonably satisfactory system, by which the receipts of the treasurer from county officials may be known or verified.

But there are other large receipts as to which the controller at present has no means of definite knowledge. For instance, the taxes, and payments made on account of highways or bridges, etc., by city or town treasurers; also payments of moneys received for dog licenses by city or town clerks.

I do not think it would be a hardship to the above-named city or town officers if they should be required to send to this office, whenever they pay money to the county treasurer, a duplicate statement, showing the date, amount, and for what the same was paid, which would give me absolute knowledge as to what sums the treasurer should have charged himself with receiving from these officials. Considering this to be an additional and important safeguard of the interests of the county, I recommend the passage of the following act:—

AN ACT RELATING TO PAYMENTS BY CLERKS AND TREASURERS OF CITIES AND TOWNS TO COUNTY TREASURERS.

SECTION 1. All payments made by city or town treasurers and city or town clerks to any county treasurer, excepting the treasurer of the county of Suffolk, shall be accompanied by a statement, in such form as may be prescribed by the controller of county accounts, showing the date, amount and purpose of such payments, and a duplicate statement shall be at once sent by the said city or town officer to the controller of county accounts.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

CHECKS GIVEN BY COUNTY TREASURERS NOT PRESENTED FOR PAYMENT.

The annual examination of the accounts of the county treasurers shows that there is in almost all cases a more or less large amount of money lying in their banks of deposit in excess of the amount which is shown to be there by the check book of the treasurer. This arises from the fact that for various reasons persons who have received the check of the treasurer have neglected to deposit or present the same for payment. Some of the outstanding checks were issued years ago, and are doubtless lost or destroyed. Others are retained by persons who consider them as being practically a certificate of deposit in the bank to their credit, and there have been instances where such checks have finally been presented, with a request for interest on the amount.

This practice is sufficiently prevalent to entail upon the treasurers constantly recurring care and labor in balancing their bank accounts, and it also entails the same unnecessary labor and consequent waste of time upon the controller. The Legislature, by chapter 117 of the Acts of 1900, provided that the face value of checks given by the Treasurer of the Commonwealth, and not paid within two years of their date of issue, shall revert to the treasury of the Commonwealth, and that the amount due on account of such checks shall not be paid out of the treasury excepting upon an appropriation for the purpose by the General Court. Following this precedent, I recommend the passage of the following act:—

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE DISPOSAL OF CHECKS GIVEN BY COUNTY TREASURERS IN CERTAIN CASES.

SECTION 1. The face value of all checks hereafter given by any county treasurer, and not paid within two years of the date of issue thereof, shall revert to the treasury of the county; and the amount due on account of said checks shall not be paid out of the treasury of the county except upon an order duly made and signed by the county commissioners and attested by their clerk.

SECTION 2. The face value of all outstanding checks which have been issued for the payment of bills by present or former county treasurers, and which shall not have been paid within two years of the passage of this act, shall revert to the treasury of the county; and the amount due on account of such checks shall not be paid out of the county treasury except upon an order duly made and signed by the county commissioners and attested by their clerk.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

COUNTY TREASURERS' ASSISTANTS AND VACATIONS.

There are a number of the county treasurers for whom no clerical assistance is now provided by law. In my judgment, it is advisable that such provision be made by authorizing the payment from the county treasury of a sum not exceeding some fixed amount to persons who actually perform the work, upon the certificate of the treasurer, countersigned by the county commissioners, that the work has been actually performed by such person. I make this suggestion for two reasons:—

First, and most important, because experience has convinced me that it is desirable, if not absolutely necessary, that some person should be qualified by actual experience to do the clerical work in the office of the treasurer in case of his sickness, disability or enforced absence. In such cases the treasurer, as a rule, may be able to sign such checks as may be necessary, although unable to do the clerical work connected with the receiving or paying out of money. Under existing laws, by which appropriations are granted for stated purposes in detail, and not in a lump sum for general county use, there are some twenty different headings under which expenditures can be made, each limited as to the amount which can properly be expended for that particular account. There is almost an equal subdivision of the receipts, and it requires familiarity with the law and its application to properly carry on the necessary clerical work in the office of the treasurer.

My second reason is that, as the law now stands, county treasurers are open to criticism if they, for any reason other than those previously mentioned, are absent from their offices even for a day. Judges and clerks of police and district courts are legally entitled to an annual vacation of thirty days; probation officers may be absent fourteen days without loss of pay; other county officials have either had provision made for their annual relaxation, or have subordinates in whose care their work can be left without detriment to the public service. In fact, it is almost the universal custom in State, county, city or town offices, and in the mercantile world also, to allow vacations to employees. I think it is a generally accepted theory that a man does better and more work in the year if he is released for a limited period from the treadmill of his daily avocation. The county treasurers have large responsibilities, and in many of the counties onerous duties. I believe it would be justice to them, and in no wise detrimental to the interests of the counties, if provision should be made for an annual vacation.

I therefore recommend that there shall be a reasonable allowance for clerical assistance to the treasurers of the several counties for whom provision in this regard has not heretofore been made, viz., Barnstable, Berkshire, Dukes, Franklin, Hampden, Hampshire and Nantucket; and that provision also be made for an annual vacation, with such limit as may seem advisable, for the several county treasurers of the Commonwealth.

FINES FOR KEEPING UNLICENSED DOGS.

Under the provisions of Public Statutes, chapter 102, section 87, fines received in prosecutions for keeping unlicensed dogs were to be paid over by the court imposing such fines to the treasurer of the county. Section 107 of said chapter provided that moneys received by a county treasurer under the provisions of the preceding sections of that act shall be paid by him to the treasurers of cities and towns in proportion to the amounts received from such cities and towns, and the money so refunded is to be expended for the support of public libraries and schools. The Statutes of 1891, chapter 416, section 1, provide that all fines and forfeitures imposed in any district, police or municipal court, or by any trial justice, shall, where no other provision is made by law, be paid to the city or town in which the offence was committed.

When this latter statute was enacted, it was generally, if not universally, understood by the officials of these courts that the fines received from keepers of unlicensed dogs were, under its provisions, to be paid directly to the cities and towns. But when I asked the opinion of the Attorney-General as to the proper disposition of these fines, he decided that "fines received in prosecutions for keeping unlicensed dogs are provided for by Public Statutes, chapter 102, section 87, and that that section is not repealed or modified by the statute of 1891." I agree with my predecessor in office in thinking that the whole system for the disposition of moneys received for dog damages is cumbersome and unnecessarily expensive. But I will not discuss that question at this time.

The subject to which I now desire to call attention is the disposition of the fines received in the lower courts for keeping unlicensed dogs. The total amount of these is small; they are received in dribblets by the county treasurer; they cause him much unnecessary work in keeping his "dog" accounts with the various municipalities and in figuring out the proportionate amounts to be refunded; they constitute almost the only exception to the provisions of the statute of 1891, and therefore require extra time and care from all the officers, in order that the law, as interpreted, may be complied with.

In my judgment, it would be in the line of economy and simplicity, and without appreciable detriment to the interests of the libraries or schools, if provision should be made that the officers of the lower courts should pay these fines, with all others, directly to the cities and towns. This is now the law (Public Statutes, chapter 102, section 87) so far as the county of Suffolk is concerned. I recommend the passage of the following act:—

AN ACT RELATING TO FINES FOR KEEPING UNLICENSED DOGS.

SECTION 1. Section eighty-seven of chapter one hundred and two of the Public Statutes is hereby amended by the erasure of the word "county" in the third line thereof, and the insertion instead of the words

"city or town;" and by the elimination of the words "except that in the county of Suffolk the ten dollars shall be paid to the treasurer of the city or town wherein said dog is kept," in the concluding part of the paragraph, so as to read as follows: Whoever keeps a dog contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall forfeit fifteen dollars, five dollars of which shall be paid to the complainant, and ten dollars to the treasurer of the city or town in which the dog is kept.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

REQUISITIONS UPON COUNTY TREASURERS FOR MONEYS WITH WHICH TO PAY WITNESS FEES.

The Statutes of 1890, chapter 440, section 6, provide as follows: —

Witness fees to all persons . . . shall be paid in district, police and municipal courts, out of any funds paid into court and returnable to the county, excepting naturalization fees. Clerks, and justices of courts having no clerks, who do not have in their hands and returnable to counties funds sufficient to pay witnesses as herein provided, may make written requisition upon the county treasurer for the same; and thereupon the treasurer shall pay to said clerks or justices not exceeding one hundred dollars in any one month, for which said clerks shall account in their regular settlements with the county treasurers and for which they shall be liable upon their official bonds.

By Statutes of 1891, chapter 325, section 1, the above provision was made to apply also to trial justices. It was thus made mandatory upon the officers mentioned to pay witnesses their fees without delay, provision being made, as shown, for requisition for additional funds when necessary from the county treasurer.

The sum allowed, viz., one hundred dollars, was expected to be amply sufficient to enable all officers to comply with the law as to immediate payment. In almost all courts this has proved to be the case, but there are a few in which the amount mentioned has proved to be insufficient, and clerks and treasurers have applied to me for authority to make out and honor requisitions for a larger amount in some months than the one hundred dollars allowed by law. The law being explicit as to the amount to be advanced by the treasurer in any one month, I, of course, could not authorize any further payment. It is, however, evident that the law should be so changed as to enable the clerks or justices to comply with its demands.

The amount now allowed is, as already stated, amply sufficient in almost all cases, consequently it does not appear to me to be necessary to increase it by making a new and larger limit; but I think that there should be provision made for the exceptional cases, where occasionally a larger sum is necessary in order to make the payments as required. It seems to me that this could be reasonably and safely done by providing that the treasurer may advance such additional sums as may be required upon the requisition of the officer, when duly approved by the Controller of County Accounts. I recommend the passage of the following act:—

AN ACT RELATING TO REQUISITIONS UPON COUNTY TREASURERS BY CLERKS OF INFERIOR COURTS AND TRIAL JUSTICES.

SECTION 1. Whenever it shall appear to the controller of county accounts that the funds in the hands of a clerk of a district, police or municipal court, or of a trial justice, from which witness fees may lawfully be paid are insufficient therefor, and that the amount of one hundred dollars allowed to be drawn from the county treasury in any one month is inadequate to supply the deficiency, he may approve a requisition for such larger amount as is in his judgment advisable; and upon receipt of a requisition thus approved the county treasurer shall pay to the clerk or justice such sum as may thus be called for, not exceeding two hundred dollars in any one month, which sum shall be accounted for in accordance with the provisions of section six of chapter four hundred and forty of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and ninety.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

TRUANT SCHOOLS.

In the earlier part of this report I mentioned that I had no opportunity for absolute knowledge as to when and what amounts were paid over to the county by the superintendents or other financial officers of truant schools, and that this was the only county department or official paying money into the county treasury over which the controller had no supervision as to the financial accounts.

The various truant schools pay over in the aggregate about $21,000 to the several treasurers, and there is paid out from the treasuries the sum of $52,000 for their account. These amounts are of sufficient importance to warrant, in my judgment, an examination of the accounts and the system of the same, and additionally I consider it very desirable that I should be able to know when and what amounts are paid by the officers to the treasurers. I therefore recommend the passage of the following act : —

AN ACT RELATING TO THE ACCOUNTS OF TRUANT SCHOOLS.

SECTION 1. Truant schools shall be subject to all the provisions of chapter four hundred and thirty-eight of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and acts in amendment thereof, so far as the same are applicable.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

BONDS OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS.

Under this heading I last year made the following statement and recommendation : —

The Statutes of 1893, chapter 257, provide that " All bonds of public officers, required by law to be deposited with county treasurers, shall at least once a year be examined as to their sufficiency by the controller of county accounts or by one of his deputies. If it appears that any such bond is insufficient, said controller shall report the fact to the superior court or to some justice thereof, and said court shall cause a record of that fact to be made by its clerk ; and said court or any justice thereof, in term time or vacation, shall require the party or person who gave such bond to give a new one, satisfactory to the court, within such time as it shall order."

Bonds of medical examiners are among those required by law to be deposited with county treasurers. These bonds are required to be for the sum of five thousand dollars, which is a larger amount than that required of any other official whose bond is by law deposited with the county treasurers.

The provision of the statute above quoted, viz., that, if the controller finds a bond of a medical examiner to be insufficient, he shall report the facts to the superior court and a new bond shall be supplied satisfactory to the said court, would naturally lead to the supposition that the original bond was subject to the same examination and had met the same approval as is required for the new one. This would still further be reasonably expected, in view of the fact that the bonds of many other officers deposited with county treasurers are by law required first to have been approved by the said court.

But there is in reality no provision of law requiring pre-examination and approval of original bonds of medical examiners, before deposit with the county treasurers, by the superior court, or, in fact, by any other legalized authority.

In section 5 of chapter 26 of the Public Statutes it is provided only that " Each medical examiner and the associate medical examiner for Suffolk county shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, be sworn and give bond with sureties to the treasurer of the county, in the sum of five thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of his duties."

In section 6 of the same there is a provision (now repealed by the act directing the controller to make an annual examination of bonds) "that the superior court shall each year examine into the sufficiency of all bonds given under the preceding section," which again by inference would imply that the original bond was examined by the court.

It seems to me to be plain that the lack of provision for original examination was an unintentional omission, and that correction thereof should be made, so that the bonds may more surely be "sufficient" when deposited with the treasurers, thus avoiding a possible insufficiency during the weeks or months before they may come under the scrutiny of the controller in his annual examinations. There are now associate medical examiners in many counties beside Suffolk. I recommend the passage of the following act:—

AN ACT RELATING TO BONDS OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS.

SECTION 1. Each medical examiner and each associate medical examiner shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, be sworn and give bond to the treasurer of the county, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the superior court, or some justice thereof, in the sum of five thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of such duties. If he fails to give such bond for thirty days after his appointment, such appointment shall be void.

SECTION 2. Section five of chapter twenty-six of the Public Statutes is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Hearing was had before the committee on counties concerning this recommendation, and it was suggested by the chairman that in the act recommended the words "controller of county accounts" be substituted for the words "superior court," so that the approval of the bonds of medical examiners, before filing with the county treasurer, should be by the controller, instead of by the superior court as I had recommended.

I objected to this, and gave reason why I thought it would be better to have the bonds approved by the superior court rather than by the controller; it appears, however, that the committee agreed with this view of the chairman, for they reported a bill with the substitution proposed by him. By the legislative reports I see that a member offered an amendment in the Senate to substitute the county commissioners for the controller, and this amendment was voted down, and the original bill was then rejected. It seems to me that it is an imperative necessity that a bill should at once be enacted to provide for just the approval of bonds that I proposed, viz., by the superior court.

In proof of this need, I have to state that I have found several bonds of medical examiners which have proven to be absolutely worthless by reason of the improper wording of the same, although they had been in the hands of the county treasurers for a number of months. The requirements of law (Public Statutes, chapter 26, section 5) are that a bond of a medical examiner shall be given "for the faithful performance of his duties." This is the condition and the only condition specified in the statutes. In spite of this I have found several bonds which: (1) Designated a medical examiner as the "employee" and the county treasurer as the "employer," which is entirely incorrect, not being in accordance with the facts. (2) Limited the liability of the principal and surety to "such pecuniary loss as the 'employer' shall have sustained of 'employer's' money, funds or other personal property stolen or embezzled by said 'employee' during the performance of his duties." In this regard I have to say that a medical examiner does not have at any time in his possession "money, funds or other personal property" which is the property of the county treasurer, but only, so far as I can see, such valuables as may be found upon the persons of the deceased; consequently the limitation of the force of the bond to "employer's money," etc., made the bond entirely without force or value. (3) Limited the liability under the bond to "such losses of 'employer's' money as shall be discovered within six months after the death, resignation or removal of the medical examiner." And, further, all liability under the bond was limited to the term of one year from the date of the same.

It will be seen by the above that the legal requirement of such bonds, viz., that they should be "for the faithful performance of his duties," was entirely absent; and thus, while the bonds had every appearance of a "sufficient" bond, they were absolutely valueless in the event of the principal's failure to comply with the requirements of law concerning his official duties.

While it is my duty to examine such bonds after they are filed, at some time during the calendar year, it is the fact that it is a physical impossibility for the controller's office to examine all such bonds throughout the State as soon as they may be deposited with the county treasurer, or even, it may be, within some months thereafter; and thus such bonds may be entirely valueless during such period, as has been proven by the result shown in the statement above submitted.

It is evident, without argument, that, if a bond is necessary at all, it is as much needed during the first weeks or months of official duty as at any subsequent period, and therefore that provision should be made for its proper examination before it is filed with the county treasurer, in order to secure the protection which the statute contemplated, and which is by that act shown to have been considered necessary by the General Court.

I renew the recommendation made by me last year, that the bonds of medical examiners be examined by the superior court before they are filed with the county treasurer, and that the act then presented (as above submitted) be made a law.

SIMPLIFICATION OF TRANSFER OF TITLE TO PROPERTY.

In 1896, in my annual report, I called the attention of the Legislature to this subject, and recommended the passage of an act, presenting a draft of the same, to "Simplify the transfer of land." A hearing was had before the committee on counties, which was largely attended by registers of deeds from all parts of the State and by leading conveyancers in Suffolk and Middlesex counties, and all expressed approval of the legislation proposed. The committee, however, so far as I have knowledge, took no action regarding the matter.

In 1897 I again presented the subject in my report. Hearing was again had, with the same unanimous expression of approval by registers and lawyers; but the enactment of chapter 511 of the Acts of 1897, providing for the appointment of a commission to draft an act concerning land transfer, naturally superseded any consideration or action on the act which I had proposed, as it was reasonable to expect that this commission might make such recommendations or propose such an act as would accomplish the object sought for by me.

The commission reported a bill which was enacted in 1898 as chapter 562, entitled "An act to provide for registering and confirming titles to land," which became known as the "Torrens act." This act, while doubtless of great value in the line which its name indicates, in no way provided any relief to the counties, State or people in the matter of labor or expense; and consequently in my annual report for 1899 I again presented the subject to the Legislature, as follows:—

In my last report I stated (in substance) that I refrained from further recommendations in this line, in the confident expectation that the report of the committee which had been appointed to consider and draft an act embodying the principles of the "Torrens" system of land transfer would obviate the further need of my calling attention to the topic. But I am now told by both registers and lawyers, on whose knowledge and judgment in regard to this question I more fully rely than I can upon my own, that the act passed in 1898 (chapter 562), while making radical changes and improvements in certain directions, will not for some time to come, if ever, be generally taken advantage of, being permissive and not obligatory, and entailing an heretofore unusual expense; and that there is no provision in the act which in any way obviates the desirability of the legislation which I have proposed, the reasons for which, in justice to the importance of the subject, I re-state as follows:—

The great amount of verbiage now employed in papers relating to the transfer of property has necessitated a large and constantly increasing expense in providing space in which to keep the records of such transactions. Large additions have been made to county buildings and new and costly structures have been erected, and this expense must go on in increasing ratio unless something shall be done to decrease the volume of words now considered necessary in papers of this character.

In the larger registries the records fill some thirty or forty large volumes each year, and it becomes a serious problem how to care for such an ever-increasing number of books. By shortening the forms we can reduce the number one-half, and so save the cost of providing storage in fire-proof buildings, for all time, for the additional volumes. This would be a gain of tens of thousands of dollars to the various counties. There seems to be no valid reason why some such act as that which I herewith present should not be passed. It seems, for instance, almost an abuse of the records to spread upon them, time after time, the power of sale in a mortgage, when a few words in the mortgage referring to the statute would be all-sufficient.

To the end that the records of instruments conveying and affecting titles to property may be less voluminous, and the necessity for increasing the space occupied for their storage and safe-keeping may thus be reduced, the constantly increasing work of the recording clerks in the offices of the registers may be diminished, the public cost for the work correspondingly lessened, and that the time and labor spent in the examination of titles may be decreased, I have to propose the passage of an act which has been by me submitted to the judgment of a number of the leading lawyers who give largest attention to the matter of conveyances, and which has met with their unanimous approval. I recommend that an act be passed to simplify the transfer of property, as follows: —

[The act as finally corrected, and now to come before the Legislature as Senate, No. 118, is not here presented, but appears at the conclusion of my remarks on this subject, viz., on page 21.]

Hearing was again had, with the result that my proposed act was favorably reported and passed by the Senate as No. 265. In the House there was a motion to substitute another bill embodying the same ideas; and the members, being uncertain as to which of the two measures was the better, finally rejected both.

In 1900, upon my recommendation, hearing was had by the joint judiciary committee, with the same unanimous advocacy of registers and lawyers. But the committee (as I have been informed) thought it best, in view of the large amount of business before them and the Legislature, to report “Referred to the next General Court,” which was done by the House and accepted by the Senate, so that the subject thus comes before you for action during your present session.

As stated above, other parties had in 1899 devised and presented to the Legislature a draft, differing in form and phraseology, but embodying the same principles and designed to accomplish the same object (House, No. 1167, of 1899).

The matter, being felt to be of importance by conveyancers, was considered by the association called the “Real Estate Exchange and Auction Board” of Boston, and my proposed act was approved by them. Further, and perhaps more important, the subject was considered by the “Boston Real Estate Law Society,” with the result shown in the following copy of a letter received from their secretary: —

BOSTON, MASS., May 3, 1900.

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT, Esq.

DEAR SIR: — The action of the Boston Real Estate Law Society, usually called the Abstract Club, in regard to the proposed “Act to simplify the transfer of title to property,” has been as follows: —

At a meeting held on March 10, 1899, the proposed bill was brought in by Mr. Brewster and discussed by the members, section by section, and was then approved by unanimous vote, the conveyancers present declaring their intention to use the forms prescribed.

At a meeting held April 28, 1899, the proposed substitute was considered carefully, and the society voted to adhere to its former action and to disapprove the substitute bill, and expressed unwillingness to use the forms set forth in it.

Yours very truly,

J. P. PARMENTER, Secretary.

The act referred to appears as House, No. 20, of 1900, which was later corrected and printed as Senate, No. 118.

For your further information I submit a copy of a statement made by me to the committee, in answer to a remark made by a member that "there has been no increased expenditure in the last fifty years to accommodate the needs of the registries of deeds."

STATEMENT (MADE IN 1899) REGARDING ADDITIONS FOR THE USE OF THE REGISTRIES OF DEEDS.

In the year 1876, by reason of previous assignment of increased room from time to time, there was used for the purposes of the registry of deeds at East Cambridge, floor space to the extent of 2,800 square feet. In that year it was decided by the county commissioners that, having exhausted all space available for the registry of deeds in the old county building, it was necessary that a new building should be erected for its needs. They appealed to the Legislature at its next session, and by chapter 80 of the Acts of the year 1877 they were authorized to borrow $40,000 "to be expended in erecting a new building for the registry of deeds at East Cambridge;" and further by chapter 19 of the Resolves of the same year there was included in the tax granted for the year a provision "that a sum not less than $20,000 shall be applied for the erection of a building for the registry of deeds," thus making a total authorization of $60,000 for the purpose. The whole of this amount was, however, not expended, the total cost of the building when completed being a little short of $50,000.

As I am informed, it was believed by the commissioners and other interested parties that this (then considered large building) would suffice for the needs of the registry for the then ensuing fifty years, as it provided a floor space of over 6,000 square feet. But only some ten years later it was found necessary to provide more room, and by chapter 222 of the Acts of the year 1888 authorization was given to "erect an addition to the registry of deeds building in Cambridge, for the use of the courts of probate and insolvency and for said registry of deeds, and to expend for this purpose a sum not exceeding $125,000." By this addition about 3,000 square feet were added to the space used for the registry of deeds, thus making a total available space of 9,000 square feet. The extra space thus acquired was about one-fourth of the whole space in the addition, so that it would surely be fair to consider that one-fifth of the total, $125,000, viz., $25,000, was expended for the registry of deeds.

But even this addition proved adequate to the constantly growing needs of the office only for a comparatively short period, for in 1894, by chapter 56 of the Acts of that year, an addition to the registry of deeds building "for the use of the registry of deeds" was authorized, to cost $100,000; and this was almost immediately seen to be insufficient, for by chapter 360 of the Acts of the same year, chapter 56 was repealed, and authorization given to erect a new building for the registry of deeds, "not to be connected with any other building," at an expense of $200,000.

This authorized amount was again increased by chapter 409 of the Acts of the year 1895, which provided that "for the purpose of completing the registry of deeds building at Cambridge an expense may be incurred not exceeding $300,000, in addition to the amount authorized by chapter 360," before referred to.

Again a change was made, and chapter 409 was repealed by chapter 500 of the Acts of the year 1896, which provided that for the purpose of furnishing accommodations "for the registry of deeds and probate court, a building shall be erected on the site heretofore acquired under authority given by chapter 360 of 1894," and that the expense to be incurred for constructing said building in addition to the cost of the site, "shall not exceed the sum of $500,000." The site cost about $200,000; consequently the total cost to the county, as authorized, will be about $700,000 for the site and the completed building. This building, now nearing completion, is to furnish 16,388 square feet of space for the registry of deeds, with an additional reserved space of 7,000 square feet, to be available when needed.

This statement shows that the needs of the registry increased so rapidly that from a space of 2,800 square feet, used in 1877, increase was called for in another ten or eleven years to a space of 9,000 square feet, and that in another ten years, or about that time, it was considered necessary to provide a space of over 16,000 square feet, with provision to utilize 7,000 square feet more when required. Thus in about twenty years it was found necessary to increase the space devoted to the registry of deeds from 2,800 to over 16,000 square feet, or nearly six times as much as was used in 1877.

So much for the space required. Now, turning to the financial side of the question, it appears that it has cost the county, to provide this space, the sums in the various years, of, first $50,000 in 1877, $25,000 in 1888 and $700,000 in 1899, — a total of $775,000; and this enormous expense has been incurred in one county alone.

I took this county for illustration, not because it was the only one which has incurred expense for the purpose of providing for the constantly growing needs of the registries of deeds, nor because the expense has been the largest, although doubtless this latter is true; but because the county seat was the nearest, and thus I could more easily obtain facts and figures.

I will additionally mention, as matter within my knowledge, but concerning which I have not made effort to obtain specific information, that the lawyers and newspapers in Essex County have been for some time past complaining that there was insufficient room in the registry of deeds at Salem, and have been urging that a new building be erected to provide needed room for the registry of deeds, and incidentally to give better quarters for the probate court; also that in Norfolk County, under authority given by Statutes of 1899, chapter 188, the county commissioners have purchased land in the town of Dedham "for the purpose of erecting thereon a new building to be used for a registry of deeds and a registry of probate for said county," at an expense of $17,000, and are formulating plans for the erection of a building thereon for the purpose mentioned; the primary cause of the expense being, as in Middlesex, the pressing needs of the registry of deeds for more space.

I do not hesitate to assert that the same conditions have prevailed in the majority of the other counties in a degree commensurate with their proportionate size and growth; and in view of this I claim that any system or plan which will materially reduce the volume of the records, that is, the bulk and space required therefor, deserves your careful consideration, and (if found to be without detriment to the interests involved, or to the perspicuity of the papers to be recorded) your approval and earnest effort towards the establishment by law of such a system.

The approval of the two associations, as above shown, fully demonstrates that no detriment can result to any interest, and that the legislation proposed is well adapted to secure the results aimed at.

The proposed act having been thus carefully considered, corrected in minor points of phraseology and finally approved by lawyers and conveyancers of the highest standing and largest experience, I confidently present it to you as being as nearly perfect as is reasonably possible, and I therefore respectfully recommend and urge its passage in the form now submitted, viz. : —

AN ACT TO SIMPLIFY THE TRANSFER OF LAND.

SECTION 1. In a conveyance of any estate or interest in land, no covenant shall be implied by any operative word of conveyance.

SECTION 2. It shall not be necessary to use the words "heirs" or "heirs of the body" in any conveyance or reservation to vest an estate in fee simple or fee tail, but the conveyance or reservation shall take effect according to the intention expressed in it, so far as it lawfully may, and shall be deemed to express an intention to vest an estate in fee simple unless it clearly appears in the deed that a less estate is intended.

SECTION 3. In a conveyance intended to create a use to be executed by the statute of uses, the word "use" shall be employed in declaring the use, and provisions introduced by the words "in trust," or other expressions that might otherwise create uses, shall be deemed to create trusts and not uses. And if no use or trust is declared or indicated in the conveyance, the same shall take effect as if it were expressed to be for the use and benefit of the grantee.

SECTION 4. It shall not be necessary to mention in any covenant, agreement or condition, in a conveyance of, or other instrument affecting, the land heirs, executors, administrators or assigns of either party, in order that they may be bound by, included in, or entitled to the benefit of the same; but such heirs, executors, administrators and assigns respectively shall, without being mentioned therein, be bound by, included in and entitled to the benefit of the covenant, agreement or condition, when the context so admits, in the same manner as if they had been mentioned therein with proper words for that purpose.

SECTION 5. The holder of a mortgage of land shall not by virtue of the mortgage have the right to enter upon or to take possession of the mortgaged premises or to receive the rents or profits thereof before a breach of the condition, unless it shall be so expressly stated in the mortgage.

SECTION 6. When a mortgage provides that, in case of a breach of condition or in any case specified in the mortgage, the mortgagee or the holder of the mortgage shall have the statutory or usual power of sale, the holder of the mortgage in any such case shall have power, operating to the same extent and in the same manner as if it had been expressed in the mortgage, to sell the mortgaged premises or such part thereof as may then remain subject to the mortgage, together or in parcels, by public auction on or near the same, or at such place as may be designated for that purpose in the mortgage, and to convey the same to the purchaser absolutely, and to make any such sale subject to any prior mortgages or charges affecting the premises sold, or upon the terms of all or any of such mortgages or charges then due and payable being paid off out of the purchase money, and such sale shall be a perpetual bar to the right of redemption. But, before selling, the holder of the mortgage shall publish notice of the time and place of sale once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper published in the city or town, or, if there be no such newspaper, then in some newspaper published in the county, where the mortgaged premises are; and the first of such publications shall be not less than twenty-one days before the day of sale.

SECTION 7. The holder of the mortgage, or any person acting in his behalf, may purchase at such sale, unless the contrary is declared in the mortgage.

SECTION 8. The holder of the mortgage, out of the money arising from such sale, may retain and pay the expenses incurred in the sale, and all sums which any holder of the mortgage shall properly have paid by reason of any default of the mortgagor or the person entitled to the property subject to the mortgage, with interest on such sums, and the money then secured by the mortgage, whether then or thereafter payable, and shall pay the residue to the grantor or his assigns on demand. No person other than the holder of the mortgage shall be bound to see to the application of the money arising from such sale.

SECTION 9. When any land shall have been sold under the power hereinbefore mentioned or any power contained in the mortgage, an affidavit or affidavits, setting out the events that have happened authorizing the sale and the things that have been done in the exercise of the power, or any of such events or things, may be made and recorded in the registry of deeds within thirty days after the date of the deed of conveyance under the power. If any such affidavit be made by a person other than the holder of the mortgage, it shall state that he makes the affidavit by the authority or on behalf of such holder. Such affidavit or affidavits or a duly certified copy of the record thereof shall be evidence of the matters therein contained for the purpose of showing that the sale was authorized by the power and that the power was duly exercised. And the parties may provide in the mortgage that such affidavit or affidavits or copy shall be conclusive evidence in favor of bona fide purchasers as to such matters or any of them.

SECTION 10. In an assignment of a mortgage the word "mortgage," used as a description of what is thereby assigned, shall include the debt, note, money or claim secured, and all the estate conveyed by the mortgage, subject to the right of redemption, unless a different intention clearly appears in the assignment.

SECTION 11. A mortgage may be discharged by a deed or other instrument in writing, acknowledging satisfaction or payment of or expressing an intention to discharge the mortgage; and such deed or instrument shall have the same effect as a deed of release, and, being acknowledged or proved according to the statute, may be recorded.

SECTION 12. The fees for recording instruments drawn in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be the same as now required by law, but in no case shall the charge for recording a deed of conveyance be less than fifty cents, or for recording a mortgage less than one dollar.

SECTION 13. Forms similar to those in the schedule hereto may be used, and shall be sufficient for the purposes therein specified, and they may be adapted to other cases by such variations as circumstances may require.

SCHEDULE OF FORMS.

1. [Conveyance with General Covenants for Title and Warranty.]

Be it known that I, A. B., of, etc., in consideration of one thousand dollars to me paid by C. D. of, etc., do hereby grant unto the said C. D. all that parcel of land situate, etc. [in case of a trust add, To hold the premises hereby granted in trust, etc.]. And I covenant with the grantee that I am lawfully seized in fee simple of the premises hereby granted, that they are free from all incumbrances, that I have good right to grant the same as aforesaid, and that I will warrant and defend the same forever. In witness whereof, I [having no wife] have hereto set my hand and seal the third day of January in the year nineteen hundred and one.

ATTACHMENTS OF REAL ESTATE.

There has been submitted to me, by lawyers in whose judgment in regard to legal matters I have the utmost confidence, on account of their experience and reputation, a draft of an act concerning attachments of real estate. I have sought and obtained additionally the opinions of other equally competent members of the legal fraternity, with the result that I consider myself justified in presenting for your consideration and including among my recommendations the following act:—

AN ACT RELATIVE TO ATTACHMENTS OF REAL ESTATE.

SECTION 1. No attachment of real estate upon mesne process, made after the passage of this act, shall be valid or of effect for more than ten years from the date thereof, even though a levy may have been begun thereunder, unless within said ten years the party originally causing the attachment to be made, or any person succeeding to said party's rights under said attachment, shall cause the same to be renewed by making a written request to that effect to the register of deeds for the county or district in which the attachment is recorded. The request shall describe accurately the original attachment as it appears of record; and upon receipt of such request it shall be the duty of the register of deeds to record the fact of renewal in the manner now provided by law for recording attachments.

SECTION 2. A renewal of an attachment under this act shall have the effect of prolonging the life of the original attachment for a period of ten years from the date of renewal, unless the attachment is sooner discharged in any manner now provided by law; and any renewed attachment shall be subject to further renewals from time to time, in the same manner and with the same effect as is hereinbefore provided for the original attachment.

SECTION 3. The fee for recording a renewal shall be the same as for recording the original attachment.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

THIRD DEPUTY CONTROLLER.

By chapter 477 of the Acts of 1898 the controller was authorized to appoint a third deputy to assist him in the discharge of the duties of his office. This was in response to my repeated requests for additional assistance, on account of the increased work given me by the legislation of recent years.

I asked the Legislature to provide the same salary for this deputy as had been given the other deputies upon the establishment of the office, viz., $1,500 per annum. This was not accorded, but the amount of $1,000 was allowed.

In my last annual report I stated the reasons why, in my judgment, the third deputy should receive the same salary, viz., $1,500, as was by law accorded to the other deputies upon the establishment of this office in 1887. The Legislature acted upon my recommendation concerning this subject, and granted an increase of the amount fixed by the act of 1898; but the amount allowed was not that recommended, being but $1,200, instead of $1,500. I still think that the larger sum should be accorded, and in support of this view I present my reasons, as follows:—

The third deputy is not, as might be inferred by the numerical title, called upon to perform duties of a different class, or required to possess qualifications of a lower degree, than those demanded of the other deputies. By the act establishing his position he was “to have the same powers as the other deputies of the controller.” The necessities of the increased work of the office required that he should perform the same duties and take the same responsibilities in the examination of the accounts of county officials as the other deputies. In order to satisfactorily do this, it was necessary that he should be an experienced and thorough accountant, with age and appearance entitling him to the respect of the officials whose accounts he should supervise, and with good judgment as to what to say and how to say it; for the duties of the office are delicate in their nature, dealing, as they do, with the honesty, capacity and habits of officials, many of whom, from the nature of their positions and their long service therein, have become accustomed to the feeling that their way of doing things is hardly open to criticism from any source. In addition to the possession of these qualities, I required, as a measure of economy, that this deputy should be a competent stenographer and typewriter, the work of the office demanding service of this character, which could only otherwise be had by the employment of another person with another salary.

My present third deputy meets all the requirements above mentioned, and I think that, in justice to him and to the work of the office, his salary should be fixed at $1,500 per annum; and I therefore recommend the passage of the following act: —

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH THE SALARY OF THE THIRD DEPUTY IN THE OFFICE OF THE CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

The salary of the third deputy in the office of the controller of county accounts shall be fifteen hundred dollars per annum from and after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and one.

THE COURT OF LAND REGISTRATION.

The "Torrens" system of land registration was, I think, first brought to the notice of the Legislature about ten years ago, but no definite action was taken in the direction of incorporating its provisions in the laws of this Commonwealth until the year 1897, in which year a commission was appointed by the Governor to draft and prepare an act embodying the principles of the Torrens system, and report the same to the next General Court. In accordance with the report thus presented, the Legislature, by chapter 562 of the Acts of the year 1898, cited as the land registration act, established a court, to be called the court of registration, and this court was opened for business on Oct. 14, 1898. By chapter 354 of the Acts of the year 1900, the name of the court was changed to that of the court of land registration.

In January, 1899, an action was begun in the supreme court of the Commonwealth for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the act which established the court. On Jan. 3, 1900, the supreme judicial court handed down its decision, sustaining the constitutionality of the statute and denying the writ of prohibition which had been asked. A writ of error was thereupon taken out to the supreme court of the United States. On Dec. 17, 1900, the federal court filed its decision, dismissing the plaintiff's writ of error, on the ground that he had no right to be heard. While this decision did not, in terms, confirm the constitutionality of the act, it to all practical intents and purposes accomplished that result, for it restricted the right of appeal from the decision of the Massachusetts court to a party who had actually been deprived of property by the court of land registration, without having opportunity to be heard, which is a contingency so thoroughly guarded against by the provisions of the land registration act as to be apparently impossible to arise.

In accordance with the recommendation made in the last annual report of this office, the recorder and assistant recorders were, by chapter 116 of the Acts of the year 1900, made subject to the provisions of chapter 438 of the Acts of the year 1887, and, in conformity thereto, they have this year made an annual return or statement, showing their receipts and expenditures.

The court being of such recent establishment, and there being no other published record of its financial affairs, it appeared to both the recorder and myself that this first return should show not only the receipts and expenditures for the past year, but also include a statement of the same from the date when the court was opened for business.

This statement therefore appears among the tabulations in the Appendix to this report. By the figures thus presented it appears that the receipts have been, in round numbers, in the three years, as follows: from Oct. 14, 1898, to the end of that year, $3,200; for 1899, $6,400; for 1900, $9,100.

Petitions for registration have, I am informed, been received from nearly fifty of the cities and towns in the larger counties of the State, the assessed value of the property covered by the petitions being nearly $1,500,000. Mortgages aggregating $500,000 have been registered in Suffolk County, and nearly a like amount in Middlesex.

This statement demonstrates that the new system has steadily grown in favor and use, in spite of the uncertainty as to its continuance, which was the natural result of the legal steps taken to test the constitutionality of the act. That question having now been determined beyond reasonable doubt, there is every reason to believe that the beneficial provisions of the act will be recognized and taken advantage of by dealers in and owners of land in greatly increased numbers.

Applications for the registration of titles to land were not by the act made compulsory in any way. It is reasonable, however, to expect that in time to come effort will be made to bring all titles under the jurisdiction of the court. Already an opening in that direction has been made, in that the Attorney-General in his report for this year has recommended that the act be made so far compulsory, after such time as may seem reasonable to the Legislature, that loans by savings banks upon real estate mortgages, at least for large amounts, shall be made only upon land the title to which has been registered.

That the general use of the processes provided in the act will result in a great saving of space required for records, and clerical labor thereon, is beyond question. This will especially be the case in regard to mortgages and papers of a like nature; a registered mortgage requiring on a page of the record book but a single line of space, while the mortgage recorded under the old system occupies from one to three pages, with a corresponding difference in expense for labor in making the record. It is evident that this saving of space and economy of labor will result in a marked diminution of expense; and, if the act which is proposed in another part of this report to simplify the transfer of land shall become a law, there will in the years to come be a greatly lessened need for room in which to store the records, with the immense expense which that entails, and a largely diminished cost for the clerical labor called for by the recording of documents affecting transactions in land.

THE TABULATIONS.

While the tables in the Appendix present the receipts and expenditures in the detail required by law, I collate from them certain aggregate showings which appear to me to be of interest in connection with the consideration of county affairs, as follows (only round numbers are used) :—

Cash received by county treasurers in 1899,	.	.	$3,935,800 00
Cash received by county treasurers in 1900,	.	.	3,642,600 00
Decrease in 1900,	.	.	$293,200 00

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

OF THE

OF THE

CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
ROOM 101, STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, Jan. 30, 1902.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with law, I have the honor to submit the fifteenth annual report of this office, covering the year ending with the thirty-first day of December, 1901.

The annual examination of the various accounts under the supervision of this office has developed no necessity for legislation to change or further regulate existing methods, and I have no recommendations or suggestions to make.

As the financial affairs of truant schools were by chapter 110 of the Acts of 1901 placed under my supervision, it appears to be necessary to say that I have found a lack of uniformity in method, so far as the receipt and payment of money for their account is concerned. In some counties the superintendent of the school, under authority from the county commissioners, receives the money paid in for the board of truants, together with any sums derived from the sale of products, etc., pays some of the expenses of the institution, and at stated intervals renders an account and makes payment to the county treasurer of any balances which may have accrued. In other counties the superintendent practically neither receives nor pays out any money officially; payments for board, etc., are made directly to the county treasurer, or, if received by the superintendent, are turned over by him intact to the treasurer, who pays all bills for account of the school. While under both systems the accounts appear to be well kept and the receipts and disbursements properly accounted for, this dissimilarity in method makes it impossible to present any tabulation of financial statistics which would not be misleading as a showing of the comparative receipts and expenditures of the several schools, and I therefore omit in this report any presentation of such statistics. The returns of the county treasurers as tabulated will show the receipts and disbursements for account of the truant schools in the several counties.

In the Appendix will be found the compilation of the annual returns, arranged in tabular form.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT,

Controller.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
No. 8 BEACON STREET, ROOM 72, BOSTON, Jan. 31, 1903.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with law, I have the honor to submit the sixteenth annual report of this office, comprising a tabulation of the material portions of the annual returns made by the various officials whose accounts have been placed under the supervision of this department, and covering the financial year ending with the thirty-first day of December, 1902.

The returns of the truant schools are not, for reasons stated in my last annual report, separately tabulated, but the receipts and expenditures for their account appear in the returns of the several county treasurers.

The annual examinations of the accounts of the various officials have been duly made during the year. These accounts have as a rule been found to be well kept, and the provisions of law applying thereto properly observed.

There is each year an improvement in the accuracy and perspicuity of the accounts kept, and a commendable desire is manifested to comply with the laws and to follow the forms prescribed by this office.

I find no necessity at this time for asking additional legislation or for making recommendations or suggestions in that direction.

In the Appendix will be found the compilation of the annual returns, arranged in tabular form.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT,
Controller.

WILLIAM H. WING, Second Deputy.

ELMER R. LIBBY, Third Deputy.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
ROOM 101, STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, Jan. 30, 1904.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with the provisions of section 49 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws, I have the honor to submit the seventeenth annual report of this office, including the material portions of the returns made by the various officials whose financial accounts have been placed under the supervision of this department, and covering the year ending with the thirty-first day of December, 1903.

The annual examinations, which have been duly made by the controller and his deputies, have developed no necessity for change in the system which has been heretofore established, and I make no suggestions or recommendations for legislative action.

The Appendix presents in tabular form the returns as received.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT,

Controller.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
ROOM 101, STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, Feb. 1, 1905.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with the provisions of section 49 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws, I have the honor to present the eighteenth annual report of this office, comprising a tabulation of the material portions of the returns made by the various officials whose financial accounts have been placed under the supervision of this department, and statements of the assets, or inventories of the property, of the several counties printed verbatim from reports of the County Commissioners.

The annual examinations have been duly made by the controller or his deputies, and the accounts have as a rule been found to be well and properly kept.

I have no suggestions or recommendations to offer.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT,
Controller.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
ROOM 101, STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, Jan. 16, 1906.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with the provisions of section 49 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws, I have the honor to present the nineteenth annual report of this office, comprising a tabulation of the material portions of the returns made by the various officials whose financial accounts have from time to time been placed under the supervision of this department, and covering the year ending with the thirty-first day of December, 1905.

The annual examinations have been duly made by the controller or his deputies, and the accounts have as a rule been found to be well and correctly kept. An exception to this statement is an apparent shortage of some $8,000 in the jail accounts of the late Charles W. Fuller, sheriff and jailer at Pittsfield. The matter has been placed in the hands of the Attorney-General for adjustment.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT,
Controller.

TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
ROOM 101, STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, Jan. 18, 1907.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with the provisions of section 49 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws I have the honor to present the twentieth annual report of this office, comprising a tabulation of the material portions of the returns of the various officials whose accounts are under the control of this office, covering the year ending Dec. 31, 1906.

It has been impossible to comply with the provisions of chapter 211 of the Acts of the year 1905, which requires that this report shall be made on the third Wednesday in January, because the officers whose returns come to this office, which returns must by law be included in the controller's report, are county not State officers, and the statute changing the fiscal year to end November 30 therefore does not apply to them; and the county treasurer is particularly required by section 14 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws to, "until the tenth day of January, enter in his books the items for the payment of bills incurred or salaries earned during the previous year," so that there is very scant time for the receipt of their returns and the tabulation of the same when the third Wednesday in January comes as early in the month as the sixteenth day.

Every possible effort was made to obtain the returns at an early date, but for the reasons above mentioned the presentation of this report has been delayed until this time.

The annual examinations have been duly made, and the accounts have, with few exceptions, been found in a satisfactory condition.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT,
Controller.

TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

FOR THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1907.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
ROOM 101, STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, Jan. 21, 1908.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with the provisions of section 49 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws I have the honor to present the twenty-first annual report of this office, covering the year ending Dec. 31, 1907.

It has again been impossible to comply with the provisions of chapter 211 of the Acts of 1905, which require this report to be made on the third Wednesday in January, because the officers whose returns comprise this report are county officers, and the statute changing the fiscal year does not apply to them. Every effort possible was made to obtain the returns at an early date, but for the reason mentioned, and the fact that many of them had to be returned for correction, this report has been delayed until this time.

The annual examinations have been duly made, and the accounts have, with some exceptions, been found in a satisfactory condition.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT,

Controller.

¹ Greylock State Reservation, $1,500.

² $192,000 will be rebated by cities and towns upon completion of bridges now under construction.

³ Mt. Tom State Reservation, $3,200.

⁴ The apparent discrepancy of $100,000 in the county debt as compared with 1906 is occasioned by the Weymouth Fore River bridge account, which is not strictly a Norfolk County debt, although it was carried as such last year. This account was paid July 2, 1907.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
8 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, Jan. 26, 1909.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with the provisions of section 49 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws I have the honor to present the twenty-second annual report of this office, covering the year ending Dec. 31, 1908.

It has again been impossible to comply with the provisions of chapter 211 of the Acts of 1905, which require this report to be made on the third Wednesday in January, because the officers whose returns comprise this report are county officers, and the statute changing the fiscal year does not apply to them. Every effort possible has been made to obtain the returns at an early date, but for the reasons mentioned, and the fact that many of them had to be returned for correction, this report has been delayed until this time.

The annual examinations have been duly made, and the accounts have, with some exceptions, been found in a satisfactory condition.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT,
Controller.

STATE HOUSE, BOSTON.

APPROVED BY
THE STATE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
8 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, Jan. 24, 1910.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with the provisions of section 49 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws I have the honor to present the twenty-third annual report of this office, covering the year ending Dec. 31, 1909.

The annual examinations of the accounts of the various county officers placed under the supervision of this department have been duly made, and the accounts have been found, as a rule, to be well kept.

In the pages which follow will be found the tabulations of the annual returns made to this department in accordance with law.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT,
Controller.

TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

25. CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

FOR THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1910.

STATE HOUSE, BOSTON.

APPROVED BY
THE STATE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
8 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, Jan. 18, 1911.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with the provisions of chapter 211, section 1, of the Acts of 1905, I have the honor to present the twenty-fourth annual report of this office, covering the year ending Dec. 31, 1910.

Mr. Charles R. Prescott, Controller of County Accounts since 1895, died last November. The present controller, not having been acquainted with him, has requested the first deputy to write a testimonial to his worth:—

CHARLES R. PRESCOTT.

On the twelfth day of November last Charles R. Prescott, connected with this office since its inception, and for sixteen years its chief, passed away. In his death the Commonwealth loses a faithful servant and I a true and good friend. Intimately associated with him for twelve years, I learned to know and appreciate his noble character, to respect and to love him. Taking his office seriously, as a trust, not as a place in which to make a show nor take it easy, believing in himself and his work, and in the fair final judgment of those who should pass on him and it, he sought solely to do that which seemed right and just to all concerned, without hesitation or fear of consequences. He was absolutely, minutely honest; a characteristic not too common, and in the popular mind never found, in public life.

WILLIAM H. WING.

PROBATION OFFICERS.

Since the establishment of this office, acts have been passed authorizing probation officers to receive certain fines or moneys which, the Probation Commission informs us, amounted this year to about $75,000. Chapter 338 of the Acts of 1905 provides that where a fine is imposed and sentence suspended, "said fine shall be paid to the probation officer."

The suspended sentences under this act are increasing, with the result that the 106 probation officers of the Commonwealth are handling an increasing amount of money each year.

In order to make a thorough examination of an inferior court, it is necessary for the controller or his deputy to know what moneys are in the hands of probation officers, and whether or not they are properly accounted for. Cases are frequently discovered where the court orders that the defendant pay a certain sum each week for the support of his wife. These sums are paid to the probation officer, who in turn pays the wife; and, as no one audits his accounts, there is no way of ascertaining whether these sums are properly paid or not. I am informed that the Commission on Probation favors this legislation. I therefore recommend the passage of the accompanying bill: —

AN ACT RELATIVE TO PROBATION OFFICERS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Section forty-eight of chapter twenty-one of the Revised Laws is hereby amended by inserting in the eighth line, after the word "schools", the words: — and also probation officers, — so as to read as follows: — Section 48. He or his deputy shall also visit, at least once a year without previous notice, all other county officers who receive money payable by them to the county treasurer, clerks of the supreme judicial court and the superior court in the county of Suffolk, the recorder and all assistant recorders of the court of land registration, registers of probate and insolvency, registers of deeds, trial justices and clerks of police, district and municipal courts, and justices of such courts having no clerk, and truant schools, and also probation officers, and shall make an examination of their accounts and vouchers and the items of receipts and expenditures. He shall ascertain the actual amount of money on hand in each of said departments or with any of said officers. He shall require, so far as possible, uniformity and correctness in the method of keeping said accounts, and may prescribe the classification of receipts and expenditures and a uniform system of receipts, certificates, vouchers and exhibits. Said officers and persons shall afford to the controller and his deputies such assistance as he may require in making such examination and shall make returns and exhibits under oath and in such form and at such times as he shall prescribe. They shall also keep an accurate account of all money charged or received by them in their official capacities, and also of all expenditures made or liabilities incurred by them on account of the same, and shall annually, on or before the fifteenth day of January, make a return under oath to said controller of such receipts and expenditures for the preceding year.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

RECEIPTS OF REGISTERS OF PROBATE AND INSOLVENCY AND REGISTER OF DEEDS.

Chapter 21, section 22, of the Revised Laws requires county treasurers, clerks of courts, clerks of police, district and municipal courts, justices of courts having no clerk, sheriffs and masters of jails and houses of correction having more money in their hands than is required for immediate use, to deposit it, in their official names, in national banks or trust companies in this Commonwealth, at the best practicable rates of interest, which interest shall be paid into the county treasury.

There is no provision of law requiring registers of deeds or registers of probate and insolvency to deposit their receipts in banks. In the larger and more important registries a bank account is kept; some of the smaller ones, however, do not keep bank accounts. For the preservation of these receipts and simplification of accounting, it is desirable that they do so. I therefore recommend the passage of the accompanying bill:—

AN ACT RELATIVE TO REGISTERS OF PROBATE AND INSOLVENCY AND REGISTERS OF DEEDS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

SECTION 1. Section twenty-two of chapter twenty-one of the Revised Laws is hereby amended by inserting in the third line, after the word “correction”, the words:—registers of probate and insolvency, and registers of deeds,—and at the end thereof, after the word “treasury”, the words:—except in the case of registers of probate and insolvency, in which case the interest shall be paid to the commonwealth,—so as to read as follows:—Section 22. County treasurers, clerks of courts, clerks of police, district and municipal courts, justices of courts having no clerk, sheriffs and masters of jails and houses of correction, registers of probate and insolvency, and registers of deeds, having more money in their hands than is required for immediate use, shall deposit it, in their official names, in national banks or trust companies in this commonwealth at the best practicable rates of interest, which interest shall be paid into the county treasury, except in the case of registers of probate and insolvency, in which case the interest shall be paid to the commonwealth.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

NATURALIZATION FEES.

Under the provisions of the United States naturalization act of June 29, 1906, clerks of courts were permitted to retain, for their own use, one-half of the fees. Upon examination of their accounts by the Controller's office, the question arose whether, under the provisions of chapter 165, section 37, of the Revised Laws, they were entitled to these fees or whether they should be turned over to the county.

The contention of the Commonwealth, as set forth in the Attorney-General's opinion, was that the clerks could not retain these fees, as their duties and powers are prescribed by the laws of this Commonwealth, and they perform the duties required by the United States naturalization act by virtue of their offices as clerks of courts of this Commonwealth, and not through appointment by the United States, and our law, chapter 253 of the Acts of 1908, specially requires that all naturalization fees be paid over to the treasurer of the county.

Some of the clerks complied with this construction of the law and paid these fees into the county treasury; the others retained them.

In order that the question might be settled an action was brought in Hampden County. The full bench of the Supreme Court has recently decided that inasmuch as these fees are received by the clerks under the law of the United States, and that no act of the State Legislature can nullify this statute, the clerks are entitled to retain them.

INSOLVENCY FUNDS.

An examination of the accounts of the several registers of probate and insolvency shows that under the head of insolvency they have in their possession about $8,000, and, except in the case of one registry, not bearing interest.

This amount of money has been held by these registries since the passage of the national bankruptcy act.

Chapter 168 of the Acts of 1908 permits the payment of this money to the Treasurer of the Commonwealth, and after being held by him for three years, during which time those entitled to it can claim and receive it, it escheats to the Commonwealth.

Some of the courts have already taken advantage of this act. If the others would do likewise the Commonwealth would shortly come into ownership of this money. There is very little probability that those entitled would ever claim it. The registers would be relieved of the responsibility of its safe-keeping and the necessity of carrying these items on their books from year to year, and their accounts would be accordingly simplified.

Since the establishment of this office continued progress has been made toward uniformity of accounting in county offices. Officers of the same class have been keeping their accounts in a uniform manner, and, in the main, keeping them well. The county officers are, almost without exception, efficient public officials; but when appointed or elected, their fitness for the general duties of their respective offices was undoubtedly considered of more importance than their ability to keep books. Therefore there are still many opportunities for improvement.

The statute defining the duties of this office requires, among other things, an examination of the accounts of certain officers at least once a year. This duty has been performed. In addition it has been found necessary to examine the accounts of several officers more than once yearly.

An improvement can be made in the matter of subdivisions of the annual estimates of county receipts and expenditures. In the present grouping "Miscellaneous and contingent" comparatively large amounts of money appear. These should be itemized so that a clear understanding may be had of the items which go to make up this total. If itemized it would be found, probably, that amounts were included which properly belonged under other headings of the estimate. Comparisons could then be made with a greater degree of certainty.

The material portions of the annual returns made to this office, under the provisions of the Revised Laws, chapter 21, section 49, compiled in tabular form, follow.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK L. DEAN,
Controller.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
8 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, Jan. 15, 1912.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with the provisions of section 1 of chapter 211 of the Acts of 1905, I have the honor to present the twenty-fifth annual report of this office, covering the year ending Dec. 31, 1911.

EXAMINATIONS.

The examinations of the year have been carefully and thoroughly made. Considerable time has been spent in consultation with different officers, with a view of ascertaining whether changes could be made toward simplification of their accounts, better keeping thereof, or the adoption of methods calculated to save county money. Many offices have been examined and the accounts put in order several times during the year. A number of changes in officials have made necessary the balancing of accounts of retiring officers and properly starting new ones.

Although in the main vouchers have been proper in form, we have thought there might be an improvement in many instances. The county commissioners were therefore requested to take the matter in hand, and as a result circulars have been sent by them in their respective counties to all who do business with the county treasurer. This circular is substantially the same in all counties and is as follows: —

All persons rendering bills against the county of _____, to insure prompt payment, must conform to the following rules: —

All bills must be in the hands of the clerk of the county commissioners on the first day of the month.

No bills will be allowed unless fully itemized.

Vouchers must be attached to each bill for all cash payments.

No bills for use of automobiles will be allowed in excess of the usual charge for carriage for like service.

These circulars have brought about a great improvement in vouchers.

Those bonds of county officers which are deposited with the county treasurer and are subject to our examination have been thoroughly overhauled. In many cases new bonds have been required, and a large number have been changed so as to comply with the law. The list of corporate fidelity and surety companies authorized to do business in the Commonwealth is often changed, old companies being dropped and new ones added. Inasmuch as a large number of county officers are bonded in these companies, special attention has been given to their bonds.

The examination of accounts of training schools showed that in one instance the superintendent was in the habit of sending out the bills for pupils' care to cities and towns, receiving payment thereof, banking the same, and accounting to the county treasurer at intervals. This method was at once changed. All bills are now sent out by the treasurer and payments of the same made directly to him.

PROBATION OFFICERS' ACCOUNTS.

Under the provisions of chapter 35 of the Acts of 1911, the supervision of the accounts of probation officers was added to the duties of this office. Proper and uniform books for their accounts were at once prescribed, and officers advised relative to their keeping. A difficulty has arisen, however, in securing uniformity in results by reason of a lack of uniformity in the interpretation of the probation laws by the different courts of the Commonwealth. Cases really probationary in nature are handled by the clerks of courts, and in some courts the probation officer is not permitted to have anything to do with the money in probation cases.

Every effort is being made by this office to get these accounts into as uniform a condition as is possible.

COURT STENOGRAPHERS' BILLS.

The matter of stenographers' bills, particularly those incurred and allowed in murder trials, deserves attention. Recent trials in Middlesex and Essex counties resulted in very large and apparently too liberal allowances.

In one of these counties a stenographer was employed to report a case at so much a folio. The bills, finally approved and allowed by the court, included one for meals and expenses of the stenographer's assistants, for three days, amounting to $41.25. The four copies of the typewritten report cost the county $683.25. In another case the following bills were approved and allowed: for typewriting machine, $92.25; phonograph, $60; meals for assistants, $97.80; and for four copies of the report, $2,313.60.

The legality of these allowances cannot be questioned. The court has the discretionary power to order the payment and the county must pay.

APPOINTMENT OF JUSTICES OF INFERIOR COURTS AS AUDITORS AND MASTERS.

The practice of the Superior Court in appointing justices of inferior courts, auditors and masters, has grown considerably. The Superior Court has the discretionary power to make these appointments, and the appointees have the undoubted ability to properly perform the service required. In one county a careful comparison was made of a number of auditor's bills rendered by justices, with bills submitted by associate justices for services in holding court during the same year. The result of this comparison indicated that while it was possible for the auditor to have rendered the services paid for by order of the court, still it was possible that the county was not getting a square deal in the matter. The bills paid by the county for services of associate justices were very large.

The memorandum incorporated in the justice's certificate allowing one of these auditor's bills is, in part, as follows: "There is, however, serious question whether a county official receiving compensation considerable in amount, based upon the assumption that a substantial portion of his time will be required by his official duties, should be appointed an auditor, and I append the foregoing query lest the approval of this bill be considered as a precedent."

FEES OF CERTAIN POLICE OFFICERS.

Section 42 of chapter 204 of the Revised Laws provides that no police officer who receives a salary by the day shall be paid for testifying as a witness in a criminal case during the time for which he receives such salary. Section 44 of the same chapter provides that a police officer on duty at night who attends the Superior Court as a witness for the Commonwealth shall be paid the same fees as any other witness. The question has arisen in some inferior courts whether the police officer of a city or town who receives a salary by the week and is assigned to night duty is entitled to witness fees if he attends the inferior court as a witness during the day. Most of the courts refuse to allow such fees. The question is as to the meaning of the words "during the time for which he receives such salary." A former Attorney-General in an opinion rendered several years ago ruled that police officers who are employed and paid for night work, if called into court during the day, should be paid the regular witness fee, inasmuch as testifying in court is not an official service.

FEES FOR ISSUING WARRANTS.

In some counties large sums are paid each year for issuing warrants. If issued by a clerk of a court during office hours no charge can be made. But the office hours of a great many clerks of the smaller courts are so limited that a great part of the business of issuing warrants falls into the hands of those entitled to pay therefor from the county. Although this is all in conformity with law, still some method should be adopted whereby warrants could be issued by clerks or other salaried officers and considerable expense avoided.

These are but a few of the many cases where there is a wide divergence in matters of court allowances, due wholly to the discretionary power of the courts. I call attention to these specific cases without, however, making recommendations at this time, for I believe that the report of the Commission on the Inferior Courts of Suffolk County, although dealing directly with the courts of but one county, will lead to speedy action toward uniform practice in the other courts of the Commonwealth, superior as well as inferior.

NATURALIZATION FEES.

Under the provisions of the Revised Laws and acts in amendment thereof, naturalization fees were formerly paid to county treasurers and then turned over by them to the treasurers of law libraries for library purposes.

The United States naturalization act of June 29, 1906, permits the clerks of courts doing naturalization to retain one-half of the fees received in any fiscal year up to the sum of $3,000, paying all additional clerical assistance required from the fees received by them. If the clerk collects fees in excess of $6,000 in any one year he may be allowed additional compensation for the employment of additional clerical assistance if the business warrants it.

Upon the passage of this act a number of the clerks declined to pay over their naturalization fees to the county, and the matter was called to the attention of the Attorney-General. He ruled that the clerks were not entitled to the fees inasmuch as section 37 of chapter 165 of the Revised Laws provided that the annual salaries of the clerks were in full compensation for all services. The matter then went to the Supreme Court, and the decision there was that the clerks were entitled to their fees.

It is now incumbent upon the county commissioners to ascertain whether any part of the clerical assistance employed in the offices of clerks of courts is properly "extra clerical assistance" made necessary by naturalization work, and whether requests for increases of salaries of present employees or requests for more assistance are due to the naturalization work done in these offices.

LAW LIBRARIES.

The laws relating to law libraries in counties should be revised.

The total appraised value of the books in these libraries is about $500,000. The appropriations for the support of these libraries are made in many ways. Some are charged to general taxation, items therefor being included in the county commissioners' annual estimate; some are supported by special legislation, there having been many acts passed in different years; some receive the $2,000 or a less amount, under the provisions of the general law, section 4, of chapter 38, of the Revised Laws; others take whatever they are entitled to under this law, and also such further sums as the county commissioners see fit to allow them under a subsequent clause of this same section; in some counties no estimate is made and the expenses are paid from unexpended balances; and until recently naturalization fees went to the county law libraries.

The management of the libraries is in the hands of committees of law library associations, committees of bar associations and in some cases has been intrusted to individuals connected with these associations. Salaries are paid to treasurers, custodians, librarians and clerks, running from a few dollars into the thousands.

The returns made by several of the association treasurers to the commissioners are inadequate, the treasurers contending that the law neither requires an itemization of their accounts nor provides for the examination demanded by the controller.

The law should be amended so that all law libraries must be incorporated and appropriations made in the same way. Each library should have its separate appropriation in the commissioners' estimate, charged to general taxation. Clerks of courts fees should go into the general income of the county. The treasurer's account should be fully itemized and subject to examination by this office, without any question of the meaning of the law. Comparisons of the cost of maintenance could then be made and a saving of the counties' money would undoubtedly follow.

I therefore recommend the passage of the following bill:—

AN ACT RELATIVE TO PAYMENTS TO LAW LIBRARY ASSOCIATIONS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four of chapter thirty-eight of the Revised Laws is hereby amended by striking out said section and substituting the following:—Section 4. For the purpose of maintaining law libraries controlled by legally established corporations and associations designated in sections one and two of this chapter, and to none other, county treasurers shall pay annually to such corporations and associations such amounts as the county commissioners shall include in their annual estimate of receipts and expenditures, granted and appropriated by the legislature in the county tax, a separate amount being fixed for each library in case there is more than one in a county. All sums so paid shall be applied to maintain and enlarge such libraries for the use of courts and of citizens. The treasurer of the law library association, before receiving any money from the county treasurer, shall give bond with sureties to the satisfaction of the county commissioners for the faithful application of such money and that he will make a return annually to the county treasurer, under oath, of the manner in which it has been expended, fully itemizing all receipts and expenditures, accompanying the same with proper vouchers.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

MASTERS' AND KEEPERS' ALLOWANCE.

Section 8 of chapter 456 of the Acts of 1911 requires the superintendent, master or keeper of any reformatory or penal institution to pay over to the probation officer, under certain conditions and at the end of each week, a sum equal to 50 cents for each day's hard labor of certain prisoners in their institutions. In the case of masters and keepers of jails and houses of correction the act provides no funds from which to make these payments. Section 35 of chapter 6 of the Revised Laws provides that officers who are authorized to expend money in behalf of the Commonwealth may, upon requisition, have advanced them, by the Commonwealth, money to meet such expenditures. But there is no provision of law authorizing advances to masters and keepers in order that they may have funds from which to pay the expenses they have to meet, because of this new law or that providing for advances to discharged prisoners or other incidental expenditures. The amount of money these officers have to advance is going to be very materially increased by this act. Under the law as it is now they must pay from their own pockets and later ask the county to reimburse them. The county should advance them funds, under restrictions similar to those imposed when the Commonwealth makes advances.

I therefore recommend the passage of the following bill:—

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR ADVANCES FROM THE COUNTY TREASURY TO MASTERS AND KEEPERS OF JAILS AND HOUSES OF CORRECTION.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Masters and keepers of jails and houses of correction who are authorized or directed to expend money in behalf of the county may have money advanced to them from the county treasury in such amounts as the county commissioners may approve not exceeding the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars at any one time.

SECTION 2. Such officers shall certify that the amount is needed for immediate use, and, as specifically as may be, the purposes for which the expenditure is required. The certificate shall bear the approval of the board of county commissioners and when filed with the county treasurer payment shall be made by him to such officer.

SECTION 3. Such officers shall, within thirty days after the receipt of an advance, file with the county treasurer a detailed statement of the amounts expended subsequent to the preceding accounting, approved by the board of county commissioners, and vouchers therefor.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SALARIES OF DEPUTIES.

With the exception of the salary of the third deputy in this office there has been no change in salaries since their establishment. The third deputy's salary was raised from $1,000 to $1,200 eleven years ago. The first deputy's salary has remained at $1,800 for sixteen years and the second deputy's at $1,500 for twenty-one years. During this time the work has more than doubled. The first and second deputies have been performing their duties for many years and they, together with the third deputy, are extremely efficient and valuable men. Their salaries average $500 less than those of others in the employ of the Commonwealth, doing work of a somewhat similar nature, but not more important, and requiring not nearly the same high standard. There is too great a difference in the salaries of the deputies. The work is the same for each of them, and the only difference between men of about the same aptitude is that which experience makes. Their salaries should all be raised so as to more nearly conform with the salaries paid others whose duties are of the same general nature.

I therefore recommend the passage of the accompanying bill:—

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE SALARIES OF THE DEPUTY CONTROLLERS OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Section forty-six of chapter twenty-one of the Revised Laws is hereby amended by striking out the words "eighteen hundred dollars" in the seventh line thereof and substituting therefor the words:—two thousand dollars,—and by striking out the words "fifteen hundred dollars" in the seventh and eighth lines thereof and substituting therefor the words:—eighteen hundred dollars,—and by striking out the words "twelve hundred dollars" in the eighth line thereof and substituting therefor the words:—sixteen hundred dollars,—so as to read as follows:—Section 46. The controller may appoint, with the approval of the governor and council, and subject to removal with their consent, three deputy controllers. If the controller is disabled from performing his official duties; or if the office of controller is vacant, the first deputy shall perform the duties thereof. The annual salary of the controller shall be twenty-five hundred dollars; of the first deputy, two thousand dollars, of the second deputy, eighteen hundred dollars and of the third deputy, sixteen hundred dollars, payable by the commonwealth. The controller shall be allowed the actual expenses of himself and his deputies incurred in traveling in the performance of official duties.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

NATURALIZATION FEES.

Inasmuch as naturalization fees are now divided between clerks of courts and the United States, under the provisions of the United States naturalization act of June 29, 1906, the counties have no further claim on them. And although it may be that the second clause of section 18 of chapter 166 of the Revised Laws, making these fees payable by clerks of courts to county treasurers and by them to the treasurers of county law libraries, is, by implication, repealed by the United States law, or nullified by the decision of the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth, in the case of Hampden County v. Morris, I recommend the passage of the accompanying bill:—

AN ACT RELATIVE TO NATURALIZATION FEES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eighteen of chapter one hundred and sixty-six of the Revised Laws is hereby amended by striking therefrom the words beginning "all fees" in the sixth line thereof and ending with the words "by law" in the eleventh line thereof, so as to read as follows:—Section 18. The fees of clerks of all courts under the provisions of the four preceding sections shall be as follows; for receiving the primary declaration or application for the naturalization of an alien, one dollar; for the final declaration or application for the naturalization of an alien, two dollars; for making out the papers of either of said declarations, one dollar. No primary or final certificate shall issue until the fees provided for in this section are first paid.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

OPINIONS OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

The question having arisen in several cases how far justices of inferior courts are authorized by law to go in the matter of purchases of various articles of furniture for their offices, this office requested the Attorney-General to furnish an opinion relative to section 40 of chapter 160 of the Revised Laws. For the information of county officers I quote from his opinion, as follows:—

By a communication dated March 18th you inquire whether the provisions of Revised Laws, chapter 160, section 40, authorize the purchase by a justice of a municipal, district or police court of office furnishings, such as a typewriter, a rotary neostyle and a cabinet. . . . I am of opinion that this section does not authorize the purchase of furnishings for a court room. Under the provisions of Revised Laws, chapter 20, section 6, it is the duty of the county to “provide suitable accommodations for district and police courts in the cities and towns in which they are required to be held,” and to “provide for the heating and care thereof and do all other things incidental thereto.” The furnishings of a court room, therefore, should be provided directly by the county, under this section, and not by the justices and clerks of police, district or municipal courts under section 40.

Early in the year the question arose as to the interpretation of section 18 of chapter 20 of the Revised Laws, relative to the copy of the records of the county commissioners, required to be filed by their clerk with this office. The opinion of the Attorney-General upon this question follows:—

Section 18 of chapter 20 of the Revised Laws provides that county commissioners “shall keep a full and complete record of the proceedings at all their meetings and, if their vote and decision is not unanimous, the record shall show how each commissioner voted. A copy of said record, attested by their clerk, shall annually, on or before the fifteenth day of January, be transmitted to the controller of county accounts.” . . . I have no hesitation in advising you that in my opinion section 18 requires that a copy of the full and complete record of the county commissioners, attested by their clerk, should annually, on or before the fifteenth day of January, be transmitted to the controller of county accounts, and thereafter by him submitted to the General Court. These provisions are not complied with by the transmission of so much of the records of the county commissioners as shows how each commissioner voted in cases where their vote or decision was not unanimous.

Chapter 162 of the Acts of 1911 made changes in the law relative to county commissioners' expense allowances. The difference of opinion relative to the proper interpretation of the act was such that the Attorney-General's decision was required and is, in part, as follows:—

Your particular inquiry is with reference to what shall be included in the allowance for meals and "other necessary expenses" in addition to transportation. The matter is not entirely free from doubt by reason of the fact that there does not seem to be any express provision requiring the county commissioners to maintain an office or to hold their meetings at any particular place or office. I am informed, also, that the practice in the different counties varies as to when and where meetings are held. On the whole, however, I am of the opinion that the act should be construed so that when a county commissioner is entitled to transportation he should also be allowed for his meals and incidentals. Where he is not entitled to charge for transportation he should not be allowed for his meals.

The meaning of the word "costs" in chapter 250 of the Acts of 1911 is not plain and has occasioned trouble in the accounts of clerks of inferior courts. I quote a part of the Attorney-General's opinion as to the meaning of this word:—

It is apparent that the word "fee" in the fifteenth line is intended for "fine." The obvious purpose of the amendment was to secure to the jurisdiction in which the case was first prosecuted a proper share of the money received from the fine eventually imposed in the Superior Court. In my opinion the word "costs," as used in the statute of this year, should be taken in the same sense as the word "costs" is used in Ct. 1890, chapter 440, section 4, and is equivalent to the fees and expenses disbursed in the lower court, which the clerk of that court is required to transmit upon appeal to the Superior Court.

In 1904 several acts were passed classifying and establishing salaries for many county officers. The intention of those who drew the acts was undoubtedly to make them automatic. But coming as they did from different sources, this intention was not clearly carried out in the wording of the acts. An interpretation of chapter 451 of the Acts of 1904 by the Attorney-General was obtained, and in consequence thereof the legislation contained in chapter 299 of the Acts of 1911 was passed.

SALARIES OF ASSISTANT RECORDERS OF THE LAND COURT.

The legislation establishing the land court provided for the fixing of salaries of assistant recorders by the Governor and Council. Until last year less than half the assistant recorders received salaries and a number of them were doing much less business than some of the others who received no salaries.

In May 1911, the Governor and Council established a classification, and now each assistant recorder receives a salary, based upon the amount of business done in his office.

REPORTS TO THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

In compliance with the provisions of section 47 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws the following matters have been reported to the Attorney-General:—

Sheriff of Suffolk County.—A recent examination of papers filed in the office of the clerk of the superior criminal court of Suffolk County shows the following facts: on Dec. 28, 1910, returns were made of 21 executions on defaulted recognizances amounting to $3,326.63. The deputy sheriff's returns on these executions show that they were collected and paid to the sheriff on different dates between Dec. 4, 1908, and Nov. 7, 1910. For instance, the execution collected Dec. 4, 1908, was No. 4049, and amounted to $318.51. One of the deputy sheriffs certified on this execution that he collected and paid the sheriff this amount Dec. 4, 1908; the sheriff under date of Dec. 28, 1910, certifies that he has received this same amount on the execution. In the same way another was collected Dec. 31, 1908, 7 in 1909 and 12 in 1910. We are informed by the clerk of the court mentioned above that this procedure is in the ordinary course of business, and that it is the custom for the deputy sheriff to hold these amounts paid him until a considerable sum has been collected before paying over to the sheriff, who then makes his return to the court and receives a certificate. The sheriff informs us that the returns on the executions are not correct in that he did not receive any of this money until Dec. 28, 1910, — that it was held by the deputy sheriff until that date.

Since this matter arose, payments over have been very promptly made.

Norfolk and Plymouth County Treasurers. — Under the provisions of chapter 482 of the Acts of 1909, these two counties were authorized to expend $20,000 in repairing and improving Straits Pond bridge. An amount has been expended exceeding the appropriation by $827.96. The reason given for this is that during the work a storm arose and caused considerable damage. The work was being done by the day.

Norfolk County Treasurer. — The Northwestern Consolidated Milling Company was paid for two bills for flour, $600 each, dated Oct. 24, 1910, the flour being delivered in one lot, a car load. The purchase was made by the sheriff for use at the jail. This is apparently a violation of chapter 20, section 27, of the Revised Laws. The claim is made that the county saved money by the transaction.

Middlesex and Essex County Treasurers. — Under the provisions of section 3 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws, Middlesex County was authorized to expend annually for clerical assistance in the treasurer's office the sum of $800, Essex County, $600. Chapter 322 of the Acts of 1905 authorized Middlesex County to expend $1,200 for this purpose, Essex County, $1,000. The prior act was not repealed, in words, by the subsequent act, and the two counties regulated their expenses with the supposition that the total provided for by the two acts could be expended. The work done in these two offices was necessary, and the business of the counties could not have been properly performed by the expenditure allowed by the second act alone. During the years 1905 to 1910, inclusive, Middlesex County has paid out $626.14 in excess of the amount allowed by the second act; Essex County, $1,580.28.

Worcester County Treasurer.—The law permits counties to pay for law books for the use of courts. The present collection of books in the Fitchburg Court House is, in reality, a law library. The payments made by the county of Worcester for its support, from its miscellaneous and contingent fund, do not seem proper and have been stopped. From Jan. 1, 1911, to Aug. 1, 1911, the county has expended $360.43 in this way.

Berkshire County Treasurer.—Chapter 308 of the Acts of 1908 authorized the expenditure of $2,000 for making certain copies of records of the registry of deeds. Chapter 415 of the Acts of 1910 authorized an additional expenditure of $1,500 for the same purpose, making a total of $3,500 authorized.

The county treasurer has expended for services in doing this work the sum of $3,946.40, and for materials the further sum of $153.50, properly charged to this account. Thus the total expenditure has exceeded the appropriations by $599.90.

TABULATIONS.

The material portions of the annual returns made to this office, under the provisions of section 49 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws, compiled in tabular form, follow.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK L. DEAN,

Controller.

OFFICE OF CONTROLLER OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS,
8 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, Jan. 8, 1913.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

In compliance with the provisions of chapter 211, section 1, of the Acts of 1905, I have the honor to present the twenty-sixth annual report of this office, covering the year ending Dec. 31, 1912.

IN GENERAL.

Particular attention has been given by this office, during the year, toward still further improving the form of vouchers which the county officers must require.

With few exceptions the county commissioners have co-operated in the endeavor to have on file in the treasurers' offices a good and sufficient voucher for every expenditure; consequently, the number of vouchers rejected and substitutions required have decreased very materially. The treasurer of but one county, and that a small one, has declined to seriously consider suggestions made him, and in this case it became necessary to ask that assistance of the Attorney-General's office which the law provides.

There are several inferior courts where constant supervision has to be exercised. There are a few where the accounts are virtually kept by this office. This situation is most often due to the fact that these clerks are poor book-keepers or are incapacitated by age. There are a few offices where the clerk's allowance for clerical assistance is clearly insufficient, and though the other business of their offices is properly attended to, the accounts suffer.

PROBATION OFFICERS.

The recent act of the Legislature, imposing upon this office the same supervision over the accounts of probation offices as it has over other county offices, has opened up a very extensive field. Books and methods have been installed and officers instructed in their duties. In many courts much more time is required for an examination of the probation officer's accounts than for the clerk's. This is because of the great number of small payments made to the probation officer in compliance with the order of the court. A few officers have shown a preference for old methods or no methods, and a disinclination to follow suggestions, and it has taken time to convince them that they must adopt the method furnished by this office. The new system, however, is working well. The rapid increase of probation business is of course increasing the amount of work which this office has to do.

COMPENSATION OF SPECIAL JUSTICES.

A question continually arising is that of interpretation of the provisions of section 69 of chapter 160 of the Revised Laws, relative to the compensation of special justices of certain police, district and municipal courts. This law provides that special justices shall be paid at the same rate per day as the rate by the day of the salary of the justice of the same court; but compensation so paid for service in excess of thirty days in any one calendar year, except in holding a simultaneous session or a session where justice and special justices sit together, must be deducted from the salary of the justice. In other words, a justice in these courts is entitled to thirty days' vacation, with pay.

The Attorney-General's interpretation of this statute is that the thirty days' allowance must be in one calendar year. That is, if a justice has used but a part of these thirty days during a year, the balance of the time cannot be added to the allowance of the next year; in the case of retirement of a justice who has exhausted the allowance of that calendar year, his successor takes office without any allowance during the rest of that year; and the county treasurer has no discretionary power in cases of sickness or disability of the justices.

STATE RESERVATIONS.

The present method of providing for the support of State reservations is not uniform. Their appropriations are fixed, in some instances, by the act establishing them, while in others the amount is left to the discretion of the county commissioners. In one or two instances the commissioners are required by special acts to pay over to the reservation commissions a certain sum, without any requirement that an accounting be made to the county for the money so paid over. It is only fair to the reservation commissioners, however, to state that vouchers are furnished by them to the treasurers.

With a view of securing uniformity in the matter of appropriations and accounting, these State reservations will have the attention of this office.

QUARTERS OF INFERIOR COURTS.

In the course of our examinations, which must be made at the county offices, it sometimes happens that poorly heated, ventilated and lighted court rooms, often in a bad state of repair, are encountered. The rentals paid are high enough to warrant better accommodations. In such instances attention has been called to conditions and improvements have followed.

FINAL SETTLEMENTS OF OFFICERS' ACCOUNTS.

During the past year a number of county officers have died and appointments have been made of successors; appointments have also been made where terms have expired. This has necessitated an examination of accounts and a demand for payment over of balances due. Settlement has been obtained in all instances without recourse to bondsmen, although in two cases suggestions of the Attorney-General's office had to be made.

OPINIONS OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

Relative to the Duties and Obligations of County Treasurers.

With the exception of examinations, one of the most important features of the year's work has been that of calling to the county treasurers' attention the fact that the law imposes upon them certain definite responsibilities. There are certain classes of bills which they are required to pay without reference to or approval by the commissioners; others must bear the approval of the commissioners before payment. But the treasurer has no right to pay bills not legally authorized and for which there is no appropriation. Several treasurers were of the opinion that they were freed from responsibility for improper payments because these had the approval of the commissioners. Particular reference to payments of this nature has been made in a later part of this report, under heading of "Reports to the Attorney-General."

In view of this situation the Attorney-General rendered the following opinion:—

In a letter dated May 13 you state that certain payments by county treasurers, which are "irregular by reason of there being no legal authority for their payment," have come to your attention, and that with reference to such payments "the claim made by certain treasurers is that their only liability is under chapter 21, sections 12 and 17, of the Revised Laws, and that whatever bill comes to them, approved by the commissioners, is for them to pay, unquestioned;" and you desire my opinion "as to whether the treasurer is responsible for all improper payments made by him, or, if his responsibility is limited by law, just what that limitation is."

The duty of a county treasurer, as defined by R. L., c. 21, § 8, is as follows:—

Each county treasurer shall collect, receive and safely keep all money belonging to the county, and pay out the same in accordance with law; but he shall not pay money to the county commissioners or associate commissioners to be disbursed by them in behalf of the county.

Section 9 provides that:—

No payments, except of expenses in criminal prosecutions, of expenses of the courts, of the compensation or salaries of county officers established by law, of the outstanding notes or bonds and of interest thereon, shall be made by a treasurer except upon orders drawn and signed by a majority of the county commissioners, certified by their clerk and accompanied, except in the county of Suffolk, by the original bills, vouchers or evidences of county indebtedness for which payment is ordered, stating in detail the items and confirming such bill or account. Said clerk shall not certify such orders until he has recorded them in the records of the county commissioners.

Section 12 provides in part that: —

The county treasurer may, before payment of an account rendered against the county by a county officer, in writing require of him a written statement of the specific provision of law authorizing it. Said statement shall be filed with the vouchers. The treasurer shall be personally liable for money paid out by him, except payments specifically required by law, unless there is an unexpended balance of an appropriation made for the purpose sufficient for such payment, and he shall be personally liable for any money paid by him without the voucher and certificate required by law, except as provided in section thirty-four.

The county treasurer is chiefly a disbursing officer. Most of the payments made by him are made upon orders issued by the county commissioners or upon bills audited or allowed by said commissioners or other public officers. See St. 1907, c. 170; R. L., c. 158, § 8; R. L., c. 157, §§ 16, 17. In so far as the expenses for the payment of which such orders are issued or bills approved are incurred for purposes for which expense may legally be incurred, I am of opinion that the county treasurer may exercise no discretion, and may make payment without incurring responsibility in the premises. Upon the other hand, it is clearly the duty of the county treasurer to ascertain whether or not a payment which he is called upon to make by an order or by a bill duly approved may be made by him according to law, and this necessarily requires him to satisfy himself that the expense for which the payment is made was legally incurred in the first instance, and for this purpose he may require a written statement of the specific provision of law by which any such expense was authorized. See R. L., c. 21, § 12. If, upon the face of the record presented by the voucher or certificate, it clearly appears that there is no legal warrant for the expenditures, no order of the county commissioners or no approval by them or by any public officer of charges so incurred is sufficient to warrant the payment.

RELATIVE TO THE FITCHBURG LAW LIBRARY.

Worcester County owns a large collection of law books in the Fitchburg Court House, several thousand in number, and valued by the commissioners at $10,000. About $800 is being expended each year in adding to this collection, which equals in size the law libraries in several other counties. The management of this library is in the hands of Fitchburg lawyers, who volunteer their services.

County commissioners are authorized by law to buy law books for courts, and acting under this authority the commissioners of Worcester County have paid for the support of this library from the miscellaneous fund.

The controller took the ground that this collection of books was not attached to any court, but was in reality a law library, and as such should have a regular appropriation and be subject to the control of a bar association with duly constituted authority. Payments for its support from the miscellaneous fund of the county were ordered stopped, and the Attorney-General was asked for an opinion relative to the matter.

The opinion is as follows:—

It is your contention, also, that the county commissioners have no right to pay out moneys from either the appropriations for “repairing, furnishing and improving county buildings” or for “miscellaneous and contingent,” and that the collection of books in Fitchburg being in fact a law library, it should be incorporated as such, and have its appropriation under the head of “law libraries” in the annual estimates of the commissioners, as other libraries do.

It seems to me that it is a fair contention that you make, and that it would be in better form to have the books purchased by this library show what it really is, to wit, a law library, instead of coming under the head of furnishings, or some other term that does not disclose the precise expenditure.

I am unable to say, however, that the expenditures by the county commissioners in this regard are illegal, or that it could be demonstrated that they had no authority to purchase a book or books from time to time, using money from the funds which have been in use for this purpose up to the present time.

Relative to Chapter 604 of the Acts of 1912, An Act to establish the Salaries of the Justices of Certain Police, District and Municipal Courts.

Upon the passage of this act the question arose whether the clerks of those courts where the salaries of the justices were raised were also entitled to an increase in their salaries.

The Attorney-General's opinion is as follows:—

You have inquired whether, under the provisions of St. 1912, c. 604, § 1, amending St. 1904, c. 453, § 1, "the clerks of the courts where the salaries of the justices are raised by this act (St. 1912, c. 604) also are entitled to increased salaries."

The provisions to which you refer are as follows:—

St. 1912, c. 604, § 1:—

The salaries of the justices of the police, district and municipal courts now determined by the classification established by "Class G" and "Class H" of section one of chapter four hundred and fifty-three of the year nineteen hundred and four, and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto, are hereby increased so that hereafter justices of said courts in "Class G" shall receive eighteen hundred dollars a year, and justices of said courts in "Class H" shall receive fifteen hundred dollars a year.

St. 1904, c. 453, § 1:—

The justices, clerks and assistant clerks of each court in a class shall receive from the county in which said court is established annual salaries as in said table specified, except as hereinafter provided, the salaries of the clerks being in amount three fifths of the salaries of the justices, and the salaries of the assistant clerks two thirds of the salaries of the clerks.

The question is not free from difficulty, but upon the whole I am of opinion that the effect of the amendment above cited is to increase the salaries of the clerks of such courts as are included in its provisions, in the proportion fixed by St. 1904, c. 453, § 1.

Relative to the Bonds of Medical Examiners.

Section 4 of chapter 24 of the Revised Laws requires that "each medical examiner and associate medical examiner shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, be sworn and give bond for the faithful performance thereof, in the sum of five thousand dollars, to the treasurer of the county, with sureties to be approved by him." One of the two sureties on a medical examiner's bond having died, and the medical examiner declining to furnish a new surety, the matter was brought to the attention of the Attorney-General's office and the following opinion obtained:—

You have orally requested me to notify one of the medical examiners to furnish a new bond, because, as you state, you consider the bond originally filed by him is now insufficient, owing to the fact that one of the persons who signed his bond as surety has since deceased.

From an examination of authorities I am of opinion that such bond is not insufficient from the single fact you state, namely, that since the bond was signed and the sureties were approved by the county treasurer one of the sureties has died. The authorities seem to hold that the representatives of the estate of a surety on a bond, similar in form to the copy which you sent me, are liable for a breach of the bond committed by the principal subsequent to the death of the surety.

The opinions of the Attorney-General above set forth are quoted because they are of general interest. They form but a small portion of the very numerous communications, both written and oral, relative to the law, which have passed between the Attorney-General's office and the controller's.

LAW LIBRARIES.

Recommendations were made last year relative to changes in the law applying to county law libraries, in order that appropriations for their support should be made in uniform manner and a proper accounting be had of their expenditures. As a result of these recommendations chapter 241 of the Acts of 1912 was enacted. It goes only to the extent of requiring treasurers of law library associations to account properly; and inasmuch as the law provides for but one county law library in any county, there can be but one county law library association. Bar associations in several cities, not county seats, have therefore assumed the management of law libraries in these cities, these libraries having been established by special acts of the Legislature and their support imposed upon the county. The treasurers of several of these bar associations claim that inasmuch as their associations are not law library associations, they are not required to render the account called for by the act above referred to.

The same reasons exist for an accounting by them as for an accounting by treasurers of law library associations, to wit, the control and expenditure of county money for law library purposes.

I recommend, therefore, the passage of the following bill:—

AN ACT RELATIVE TO BONDS OF TREASURERS OF BAR ASSOCIATIONS IN CONTROL OF LAW LIBRARIES.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter two hundred and forty-one of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and twelve is hereby amended by inserting after the word “association”, in the first and second line, the words:—and of every bar association having in charge a law library, supported in whole or part by the county,—so as to read as follows:—Section 1. The treasurer of every law library association, and of every bar association having in charge a law library, supported in whole or part by the county, before receiving any money from the county treasurer, shall give bond, with sureties to the satisfaction of the county commissioners, for the faithful application of such money, and that he will make a return annually to the county treasurer, under oath, of the manner in which it has been expended, fully itemizing all receipts and expenditures and accompanying the same with proper vouchers.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

INTEREST ON MONEY PAID INTO COURT SHOULD BE PAID TO THE COUNTY.

By reason of certain rules of court, and under statutes, large sums of money are paid into court pending settlement of cases, civil and criminal. Inasmuch as the law contemplates the speedy return of this money to those entitled to it, there is no law requiring the clerks to deposit it at interest. However, some have done so, and considerable amounts of interest are now held by them. In a few instances, by order of the court, interest has been paid over, with principal, to the person eventually receiving the deposit, and other amounts of interest have been allowed to accumulate.

The Attorney-General has ruled that the clerk is not entitled to this interest, and there is no law requiring him to pay it over to the county, except in Suffolk County. Inasmuch as the clerk is a county officer, I believe this interest should be paid over to the county treasurer.

I recommend the passage of the following bill:—

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE PAYMENT TO THE COUNTY TREASURER, BY CLERKS OF COURTS, OF INTEREST ON MONEY PAID INTO COURT.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. All interest on money paid into court, in the hands of clerks of courts, over and above the amount accumulated on pending cases, shall be paid over to the county treasurer, annually, on the first day of January.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

PROBATION OFFICERS SHOULD FURNISH BONDS, AND DEPOSIT IN BANKS.

The probation system of the Commonwealth has reached a stage of development where many of its officers are handling considerable amounts of money. All county officers are required by law to furnish bonds for faithful accounting, and probation officers should do so. There is even more reason for this because these officers retain money in their possession for indefinite periods, until the terms of probation are complied with and cases disposed of. By reason of the interpretation put upon the probation laws by some of the courts very little money is handled by the officers of these courts; but in a large number of the courts the amounts of money in the hands of probation officers run into the hundreds and thousands of dollars.

Should these officers have in their possession more money than is required for immediate use, this should be deposited and interest obtained, if possible, just as the law requires in the case of county officers, under the provisions of chapter 21, section 22, of the Revised Laws, as amended by chapter 36 of the Acts of 1911.

I recommend the passage of the following bills: —

AN ACT RELATIVE TO BONDS OF PROBATION OFFICERS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Probation officers now holding office, and those hereafter appointed, before they enter upon the performance of their official duties, shall give bond to the treasurer of the county, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by a justice of the superior court, who shall also fix the amount of said bond, conditioned to account for and pay over as and when required by law all moneys received by them in the exercise of their official duties. A failure so to do shall be a breach of the condition of such bond, and a failure to give such bond shall be a sufficient cause for the removal from office of the officer.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO PROBATION OFFICERS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twenty-two of chapter twenty-one of the Revised Laws, as amended by chapter thirty-six of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eleven, is hereby further amended by inserting in the third line, after the word "correction", the words: — probation officers, — so as to read as follows: — Section 22. County treasurers, clerks of the courts, clerks of police, district and municipal courts, justices of courts having no clerk, sheriffs and masters of jails and houses of correction, probation officers, registers of probate and insolvency, and registers of deeds, having more money in their hands than is required for immediate use, shall deposit it, in their official names, in national banks or trust companies, in this commonwealth, at the best practicable rates of interest, which interest shall be paid into the county treasury, except in the case of registers of probate and insolvency, in which case the interest shall be paid to the commonwealth.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

REPORTS TO THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

In compliance with the provisions of section 47 of chapter 21 of the Revised Laws, the following matters have been reported to the Attorney-General: —

Berkshire County Treasurer. — In the last annual report of this office attention was called to the appropriations and expenditures made for certain work in connection with the registries of deeds in the Middle and Southern Berkshire districts, as follows: —

Chapter 308 of the Acts of 1908 authorized the expenditure of $2,000 for making copies of records in the registry of deeds. Chapter 415 of the Acts of 1910 authorized the additional expenditure of $1,500 for a similar purpose, making a total of $3,500 authorized. The county treasurer has expended for services in doing this work the sum of $3,946.40, and for materials the further sum of $153.50, properly charged to this account. Thus the total expenditure has exceeded the appropriations by $599.90.

Certain amounts having been returned and corrections made, this latter amount has been reduced to $517.40.

For the purpose of finishing this work the Legislature of 1912 granted a further appropriation of $1,500 (chapter 476, Acts of 1912).

Acting under advice of the Attorney-General, the treasurer of the county has been allowed to use $517.40 of this new appropriation to set off against the amount by which he had exceeded the previous appropriations, provided the work be completed with the balance of the new appropriation.

Essex County Treasurer. — An examination of the accounts of the treasurer of Essex County showed that under the heading of "salaries and expenses, district and police courts," the sum of $54.19 had been paid to the estate of Edmund B. Fuller. Judge Fuller died March 20, 1911, and this payment was the balance of the month's salary, March 20 to April 1, 1911. His thirty days' allowance had been exhausted some considerable time before his death.

The treasurer's claim was that inasmuch as this payment was approved by the county commissioners, it was properly made.

Plymouth County Treasurer. — An examination of the accounts of the treasurer of Plymouth County showed that payments had been made of bills approved by the county commissioners, and amounting to $145.50, for an orchestra, caterer, cigars, carriage hire and carting, in connection with ceremonies at the opening of the new Plymouth County jail. The treasurer claimed in this case, also, that the approval of the commissioners made these bills proper ones for him to pay.

The Attorney-General decided that these payments, as well as the Fuller payment in Essex, were not legal, and the treasurers in both counties refunded to the treasury.

Nantucket County Treasurer. — An examination of the accounts of the treasurer showed that he had no sufficient and legal vouchers in certain cases of dog damages and commitment of insane persons. Although requested to furnish proper vouchers in these cases the treasurer declined to do so, and the facts were reported to the Attorney-General.

TABULATIONS.

The material portions of the annual returns made to this office, compiled in tabular form, under the provisions of chapter 21, section 49, of the Revised Laws, follow.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK L. DEAN,
Controller.
